Collect of the Day

Celebrant Together we pray.

People Grant us, Lord, not to be anxious about earthly things, but to love things heavenly; and even now, while we are placed among things that are passing away, to hold fast to those that shall endure; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Lesson: Jeremiah 8:18-9:1

My joy is gone, grief is upon me, my heart is sick. Hark, the cry of my poor people from far and wide in the land: "Is the Lord not in Zion? Is her King not in her?" ("Why have they provoked me to anger with their images, with their foreign idols?") "The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved." For the hurt of my poor people I am hurt, I mourn, and dismay has taken hold of me. Is there no balm in Gilead? Is there no physician there? Why then has the health of my poor people not been restored? O that my head were a spring of water, and my eyes a fountain of tears, so that I might weep day and night for the slain of my poor people!

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 79:1-9

David Hurd

The congregation is encouraged to sing the Psalm

- 1 O God, the heathen have come into your inheritance;
they have profaned your ¹holy ¹temple; *
they have made Je¹ru¹salem a ¹heap of ¹rubble.
- 2 They have given the bodies of your servants as food for the ¹birds of the ¹air, *
and the flesh of your faithful ones ¹to the ¹beasts of the ¹field.
- 3 They have shed their blood like water on every ¹side of Je¹ru¹salem, * and ¹there was ¹no one to ¹bury them.
- 4 We have become a re¹proach to our ¹neighbors, *
an object of scorn and de¹ri¹sion to ¹those a¹round us.
- 5 How long will you be ¹angry, O ¹LORD? *
will your fury ¹blaze like ¹fire for ¹ever?
- 6 Pour out your wrath upon the heathen who ¹have not ¹known you * and upon the kingdoms that have not ¹called up¹on your ¹Name.

7 For they have de¹voüred¹Jacob *
and¹made his¹dwelling a¹ruin.

8 Remember not our past sins;
let your compassion be¹swift to¹meet us; *
for¹we have been¹brought very¹low.

9 Help us, O God our Savior, for the¹glory of your¹Name; *
deliver us and forgive us our¹sins, for your¹Näme's¹sake.

Second Lesson: 1 Timothy 2:1-7

First of all, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for everyone, for kings and all who are in high positions, so that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and dignity. This is right and is acceptable in the sight of God our Savior, who desires everyone to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. For there is one God; there is also one mediator between God and humankind, Christ Jesus, himself human, who gave himself a ransom for all—this was attested at the right time. For this I was appointed a herald and an apostle (I am telling the truth, I am not lying), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Gradual Hymn 583 “O holy city, seen of John”

Gospel: Luke 16:1-13

Clergy The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said to the disciples, “There was a rich man who had a manager, and charges were brought to him that this man was squandering his property. So he summoned him and said to him, ‘What is this that I hear about you? Give me an accounting of your management, because you cannot be my manager any longer.’ Then the manager said to himself, ‘What will I do, now that my master is taking the position away from me? I am not strong enough to dig, and I am ashamed to beg. I have decided what to do so that, when I am dismissed as manager, people may welcome me into their homes.’ So, summoning his master’s debtors one by one, he asked the first, ‘How much do you owe my master?’ He answered, ‘A hundred jugs of olive oil.’ He said to him, ‘Take your bill, sit down quickly, and make it fifty.’ Then he asked another, ‘And how much do you owe?’ He replied, ‘A hundred containers of wheat.’ He said to him, ‘Take your bill and make it eighty.' And his master commended the dishonest manager because he had acted shrewdly; for the children of this age are more shrewd in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light. And I tell you, make friends for yourselves by means of dishonest wealth so that when it is gone, they may welcome you into the eternal homes.

"Whoever is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much; and whoever is dishonest in a very little is dishonest also in much. If then you have not been faithful with the dishonest wealth, who will entrust to you the true riches? And if you have not been faithful with what belongs to another, who will give you what is your own? No slave can serve two masters; for a slave will either hate the one and love the other, or be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and wealth."

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

About the Readings

From Preparing for Sunday http://standrewswellesley.org/worship_reading.html

Jeremiah 8:18–9:1 Jeremiah introduces us to the personal anguish of a spokesman for God. He proclaimed God's way of life to a community on its way to death. They were unwilling to listen and had no desire to hear and heed God's word. His powerful poetic images and personal prayers match the unimaginable and devastating reality of God's judgment on the kingdom of Judah. In today's reading, Jeremiah's sadness overwhelms him because he knows the people's idolatrous affront to God admits of no easy solution. There is no quick fix, no medicine that can restore the people to health. God's judgment is certain and will be devastating.

Psalms 79:1-9 The psalmist invites the people to reflect upon their past history and learn from their mistakes in relation to God. Though God chose to make a covenant with them, the people have forgotten God's commands and rebelled. They cannot afford to do this any longer so they must be more dedicated to learning God's ways.

1 Timothy 2:1-7 Today's reading begins a section on Church order (2:1–3:15), focusing on prayer. First, prayer is to be offered for all people. The assertion of the universality of God's grace may be aimed at those who taught that only the enlightened few would be saved. Second, prayer is to be offered for civil leaders. Prayer for pagan authorities was part of Jewish worship and the early Church prayed for the civil authorities as guarantors of the social structure within which the Church's mission could be pursued in tranquility. Finally, prayer is to be offered as an outgrowth of unity in the community.

Luke 16:1-13 The parable of the dishonest manager has often puzzled interpreters. Many scholars teach that the main point is the steward's quick and resolute action in establishing a new life for himself. Thus it is a parable of crisis, stressing the need to make a decision about Jesus and to act on it. Recently another approach has been taken, based upon the economics of the time. The bills probably represented goods received by the debtors on credit. The amount by which the steward reduced the bills may have been interest on the cost of the goods. Such interest was illegal, but was common in commercial transactions and justified in such cases by some rabbinic interpreters. Or the amount may have represented the steward's own commission on the transaction. Thus, the steward gives up the profit (his own or the rich man's) in return for the debtors' gratitude. In verses 10-13, Luke supplies three sayings of Jesus that give clues about how to unravel this parable. These guidelines reflect the attitudes of fidelity and trust that servants ought to display in their commitment to service of their master.

Coventry Suppers

Coventry Suppers have been a meaningful tradition for years at St. Andrew's, providing an opportunity for both new and current members to gather for simple meals at each other's homes. It is intended to be a casual evening in which members contribute dishes creating a lovely form of fellowship and a way to meet and connect on a new level.

Once you sign up to participate—no later than Sunday, October 2—the fellowship and membership committee chairs will form small groups of 8-10 people and distribute the list of members in your group in early October. A "first convener" will be designated as the first dinner host(s), where the group can then discuss how often to gather during the year.

You can sign up to participate on the sign-up sheets in the narthex, or on the St. Andrew's website (under the HAPPENINGS tab, click FELLOWSHIP). Thank you so much!

Vestry Nominating Committee

The St. Andrew's nominating committee is tasked every year with identifying qualified candidates to serve on our parish vestry and its various committees. Vestry positions are nominated at our annual meeting on January 29, 2017. We meet regularly throughout the year to develop a list of candidates for the available openings. As thorough as the process may be, we are cognizant of the fact that there may be parishioners that may not come to mind, others with special talents they may possess don't come to our attention, or some that have aspirations to serve St. Andrew's in a committed role but have not made this known.

As we prepare our final list for review, we are asking parishioners to provide their input and offer their nominations accordingly; even if it is yourself. A list of available openings (January 2017) are: stewardship, Christian learning, and property. Each vestry position also has its own committee and these committees are always looking for new members.

We will be gathering names through the end of September and are very appreciative of your suggestions. Please contact me.

Emily Eveleth to speak at Luncheon

The Fellowship Committee is pleased to announce that Emily Eveleth will join us for a presentation and discussion entitled So Much and More on Tuesday, October 11. This annual luncheon, alternately hosted with the Village Church of Wellesley, is a long-standing tradition and will be in our parish hall starting at noon. A $5 donation is requested. Please RSVP to Dot Reed at 781/235-9584 or email Pat MacKinnon at PEMack@aol.com, or sign-up on the bulletin board outside the parish hall.

Emily is best known for her monumental paintings of doughnuts. These works have been noted for how they invest this unlikely subject with unexpected presence and character and the ability to shift across a spectrum of meanings, from visceral to profound. In this presentation she will talk about these works, how she began working with this unusual subject, and why it has captivated her for over 20 years.

Emily received her BA from Smith College and studied painting at the Massachusetts College of Art. Her work is in museum, corporate, and private collections including the Museum of Fine Arts, the Boston Public Library, and Wellington Management. Her work has been written about in Art in America, the New Yorker, and the New York Times. She has received grants from the Arts Matters Foundation, an NEA Fellowship for Painting, and was a visiting artist at the American Academy in Rome. She is represented by Danese/Corey in New York and the Miller/Yezerski Gallery in Boston.

Gratitude

All Parish Picnic

Many, many thanks to everyone involved in helping with the brilliant parish picnic on Homecoming Sunday last weekend. We especially want to thank Jenny Sawyer, head of our fellowship ministry, who was in charge of organizing the very successful event. Due to the rain, we faced the additional challenge of having to do a last minute change of venue from Luisa Hunnewell's home to the parish hall. Despite the disappointment of this change in location, the rain did not dampen the spirits of the event. There was a very happy buzz of conversation and a good deal of energy in the parish hall as parishioners reconnected with old friends after the summer and met new people. It was a very nice opportunity to welcome a number of new families to the parish.

Over 70, that's right, 70+ parishioners volunteered! Some baked, some served, others set-up or cleaned-up or recycled, some took photos, and still others ran children's activities. Many of you did double duty, and made this event a wonderful homecoming for St. Andrew's: Molly Aitken, Debbie Alexander, Frances Antonelli, Emma and Wendy Barry, Christine Beach, Barbara Bergstrom, Jackie Borden, Rob Brandt, Megan Burns, Elizabeth Butcher, Elizabeth Clarke, Bill Clover, Amanda Curtis, Jessica Del Prete, Sarah Dent, Jo Dermer, Zebby & Al Dube, Ruth & George Ecker, Erica Gelser, Kate Hammond, Nancy Hancock, Lisa Hastings, Grace Hoffmann, Joanna Horobin, Ingrid Houghton, Frank & Emily Hunnewell, Cathy Hunter, Susan Jackson, Carol Jankowski, the Jones family, Peter Kaufmann, Matt King, Suzy Littlefield, Peter & Linda Lull, Isabella and Laura Brown MacKinnon, The Madge family, Herb & Paige Manning, Jen Martin, Karen McAdams, Cam McCormick, Paul Merry, Shannon Monaghan, Suzanne Nystrom, The Olivetti family, Debbie Osborn, Caren Parker, Karen Peckowitz, Tim Phillips, Tim Raeke, Terri Rawson, Dot Reed, Sandy Rigney, Laura Rodormer, Katherine Roer, Liz Rogers, Scott Sawyer, Mary Scanlon, Cynthia Scott, Martha Sears, Ginny Snow, George Stathis, Mac Thomas, Harriet Thompson, Anne Tong, Michael & Kris Vanin, Anna Lee Wahls, Allison Wheeler, and Star Zabrisky. Many more of you pitched in that day and your work did not go unnoticed.

We extend a special thank you to Luisa Hunnewell who not only offered to host the event, but was instrumental in the planning process as well. Last, but certainly not least, we are blessed to have Lynda Sperry, who thinks of everything and makes it happen, and Steve Killeen, Jenny Sawyer's silent co-chair, whose help we can always count on! Thank you to all!
