Collect of the Day

Celebrant Together we pray.

People Set us free, O God, from the bondage of our sins, and give us the liberty of that abundant life which you have made known to us in your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Lesson: Isaiah 58:1-12

Shout out, do not hold back! Lift up your voice like a trumpet! Announce to my people their rebellion, to the house of Jacob their sins. Yet day after day they seek me and delight to know my ways, as if they were a nation that practiced righteousness and did not forsake the ordinance of their God; they ask of me righteous judgments, they delight to draw near to God. "Why do we fast, but you do not see? Why humble ourselves, but you do not notice?" Look, you serve your own interest on your fast day, and oppress all your workers. Look, you fast only to quarrel and to fight and to strike with a wicked fist. Such fasting as you do today will not make your voice heard on high. Is such the fast that I choose, a day to humble oneself? Is it to bow down the head like a bulrush, and to lie in sackcloth and ashes? Will you call this a fast, a day acceptable to the Lord?

Is not this the fast that I choose: to loose the bonds of injustice, to undo the thongs of the yoke, to let the oppressed go free, and to break every yoke? Is it not to share your bread with the hungry, and bring the homeless poor into your house; when you see the naked, to cover them, and not to hide yourself from your own kin? Then your light shall break forth like the dawn, and your healing shall spring up quickly; your vindicator shall go before you, the glory of the Lord shall be your rear guard. Then you shall call, and the Lord will answer; you shall cry for help, and he will say, Here I am.

If you remove the yoke from among you, the pointing of the finger, the speaking of evil, if you offer your food to the hungry and satisfy the needs of the afflicted, then your light shall rise in the darkness and your gloom be like the noonday. The Lord will guide you continually, and satisfy your needs in parched places, and make your bones strong; and you shall be like a watered garden, like a spring of water, whose waters never fail. Your ancient ruins shall be rebuilt; you shall raise up the foundations of many generations; you shall be called the repairer of the breach, the restorer of streets to live in.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The congregation is encouraged to sing the psalm.

- 1 Hallelujah!
Happy are they who¹ fear the¹ LORD *
and have great de¹light in¹ his com¹mandments!
- 2 Their descendants will be¹ mighty in the¹ land; *
the generation of the¹ upright will be¹ blessed.
- 3 Wealth and riches will¹ be in their¹ house, *
and their¹ righteousness will¹ last for¹ ever.
- 4 Light shines in the¹ darkness for the¹ upright; *
the righteous are¹ merciful and¹ full of com¹passion.
- 5 It is good for them to be¹ generous in¹ lending * and to¹ manage their af¹fairs with¹ justice.
- 6 For they will¹ never be¹ shaken; *
the righteous will be kept in¹ ever¹lasting re¹membrance.
- 7 They will not be afraid of any¹ evil¹ rumors; *
their heart is right;
they¹ put their¹ trust in the¹ Lord.
- 8 Their heart is established and¹ will not¹ shrink, *
until they see their de¹sire up¹on their¹ enemies.
- 9 They have given¹ freely to the¹ poor, *
and their righteousness stands fast for ever;
they will¹ hold up their¹ head with¹ honor.
- 10 The wicked will see it and be angry;
they will gnash their teeth and¹ pine a¹way; *
the de¹sires of the¹ wicked will¹ perish.

Second Lesson: 1 Corinthians 2:1-12

When I came to you, brothers and sisters, I did not come proclaiming the mystery of God to you in lofty words or wisdom. For I decided to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ, and him crucified. And I came to you in weakness and in fear and in much trembling. My speech and my proclamation were not with plausible words of wisdom, but with a demonstration of the Spirit and of power, so that your faith might rest not on human wisdom but on the power of God.

Yet among the mature we do speak wisdom, though it is not a wisdom of this age or of the rulers of this age, who are doomed to perish. But we speak God's wisdom, secret and hidden, which God decreed before the ages for our glory.

None of the rulers of this age understood this; for if they had, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. But, as it is written, "What no eye has seen, nor ear heard, nor the human heart conceived, what God has prepared for those who love him" — these things God has revealed to us through the Spirit; for the Spirit searches everything, even the depths of God. For what human being knows what is truly human except the human spirit that is within? So also no one comprehends what is truly God's except the Spirit of God. Now we have received not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit that is from God, so that we may understand the gifts bestowed on us by God.

Gradual Hymn 488 "Be thou my vision"

Slane

Gospel: Matthew 5:13-20

Clergy The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "You are the salt of the earth; but if salt has lost its taste, how can its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything, but is thrown out and trampled underfoot.

"You are the light of the world. A city built on a hill cannot be hid. No one after lighting a lamp puts it under the bushel basket, but on the lampstand, and it gives light to all in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven.

"Do not think that I have come to abolish the law or the prophets; I have come not to abolish but to fulfill. For truly I tell you, until heaven and earth pass away, not one letter, not one stroke of a letter, will pass from the law until all is accomplished. Therefore, whoever breaks one of the least of these commandments, and teaches others to do the same, will be called least in the kingdom of heaven; but whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. For I tell you, unless your right eousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven."

Clergy The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

About the Readings

From Preparing for Sunday http://standrewswellesley.org/worship_reading.html

Isaiah 58:1-12 In today's verses, God redefines the role of fasting. An expression of humility, fasting offers the people an opportunity to do for others what God has already done for them. God had chosen to free the captives (52:1-3), feed the hungry (55:1-2), and bring Israel's homeless back to their homeland (49:8-12). True spiritual maturity results in a new exodus. Verse 8 is reminiscent of Israel's deliverance from Egypt. Then a pillar of cloud guided them by day and a pillar of fire guarded them by night. So it will be for those who keep the Lord's fast. The Lord will deliver them from all the exiles into which they have been driven by their own hardheartedness. The attitude of the heart and use of the tongue must also reflect charity. The people must give more than food, clothing, or shelter: they must give themselves. Instead of seeking their own pleasure, they must first satisfy the desires of the needy, finding their own desires satisfied by God (58:11).

Psalms 112:1-10 This is an acrostic psalm, each line beginning with a successive letter of the 22 letter Hebrew alphabet. It highlights the many blessings that come to those who remain faithful to God's law. The blessings are not only spiritual, but include children (v. 2) and wealth that can be used to help others (vv. 3, 5, 9). These blessed faithful contrast with the wicked whose "desires come to nothing" (v. 10).

1 Corinthians 2:1-12 Paul now develops the principle that "God's weakness is stronger than human strength" (1:18-25) by using himself as an example. Both his presentation and his physical unimpressiveness (2 Corinthians 10:10) show that the “demonstration of the Spirit and of power” was not his doing, but resulted from God’s power. Yet, despite the negative meanings of wisdom that Paul has argued against—that is, wisdom as oratorical technique (1:20, 2:4) or as human standards of judgment (1:21-26)—he can speak of a wisdom for the “mature” or perfect. This wisdom is the full significance of “Christ...the wisdom of God” (1:24) in the plan of salvation hidden for ages but not revealed. This knowledge was hidden from “the rulers of this age,” perhaps the political authorities, but more likely spiritual forces. This wisdom is not an esoteric teaching reserved for the few, for it is made known to all who possess the Spirit (2:12-13, 6:11, 12:13). The process of coming to maturity is a lifelong one, but the Corinthians’ behavior shows that they are still mere infants in the Christian way.

Matthew 5:13-20 Matthew follows the Beatitudes with two sayings, one on salt and one on light. Salt was used as a purifier of sacrifices (Ezekiel 43:24). The images of both salt and light also described the law. Light also referred to God and to the restored Israel after the exile. Verses 17-20 explain Jesus’ relationship to the law. Because of the destruction of the temple, the central authority for Judaism during this period was the law, and Jesus was to be evaluated in relationship to it. Matthew asserts that a great reversal has taken place: The law is no longer to be the center about which everything revolves. Jesus is the new center, and the law and the prophets must be evaluated in relation to him. That relationship is one not of abolition, but of fulfillment. Matthew sees the law and prophecy as fulfilled in Jesus (11:13). The law pointed forward to, and now finds its meaning in, Jesus.

Notices & Announcements

Newcomers and visitors: We extend a warm welcome to those who are new in our community. Please fill out one of the welcome cards in the narthex (foyer) and hand it to a greeter for a fuller welcome!

Souper Bowl Sunday

The outreach committee thanks all who have brought Souper Bowl Sunday donations for the Wellesley Food Pantry. After today, please leave all donations in the Food Pantry bin in the narthex—we empty that bin regularly. Thank you. — Margarethe Kulke • mnbkulke@verizon.net

Faith and Practice

Please join us on today, February 5 at 11:30am in the Harvey Room for How to Forgive. Forgiveness is a key spiritual practice for Christians, but it is hard to do. Come practice with us, and learn some tips and some stories about the grace and spiritual freedom found in forgiveness.

New Informal Service

Our first monthly informal Eucharist will be at 5pm on Sunday, February 12. The service will be followed by a potluck supper. The impetus for this service is twofold: the first is feedback from the parish survey expressing a desire for an occasional service with a more informal liturgy and music, and the second is to offer an informal service and a potluck supper for families who might be involved in sports or skiing on Sunday mornings. Over the next four months, we will be experimenting with different services to see what might work. The future services will be at 5pm on Sundays March 19, April 9, and May 7. All are welcome. We hope you will join us as we try out some new ideas alongside our traditional services, which are our main focus. — Rev. Adrian Robbins-Cole

Valentine's Potluck and Card Making

Please join us after the 5pm Informal Eucharist service on Sunday, February 12, for a Valentine's potluck dinner — "Lady and the Tramp" style (think Spaghetti dinner)! There will also be an opportunity to make special Valentine's cards for family and friends. All ages are welcome to this event! So, gather around the table, enjoy a great meal, and create some works of love! The entrée and craft supplies will be provided. Please feel free to bring a salad, rolls, or dessert. Thank you!

Men's Book Club

Our next meeting is Wednesday, February 8, at 7:30pm in the Harvey Room. We'll discuss The Warmth of Other Suns: The Epic Story of America's Great Migration by Isabel Wilkerson. Join us for one session or for the whole season. Snacks are served. — Michael Vanin

- mcvanin1@gmail.com

9am Adult Christian Learning

Join us in February for a study of Christianity in the USA. On Sunday, February 12, we will consider The First Christians in MA: Puritans and Pilgrims. On Sundays February 19 and 26, Catherine Healy will facilitate classes about The Different Christian Denominations in the USA. Join us at 9am to learn more about the diversity of the Christian faith in North America. — Rev. Margaret Schwarzer

Bible Circle Reminder

Bible Circle will meet on Tuesday, February 14, at 10:30am, in the Harvey Room. The title for this year is: Reflecting on Epistles: The Letter to the Hebrews and The Letter of Paul to Philemon. Rev. Margaret Schwarzer will lead the discussions. We will read and discuss Chapters 9 and 10 of The Letter to the Hebrews. Our Wednesday night group will meet on Wednesday, February 15 at 7pm in Room 2. We hope that you can come. Please bring your Bible! — Margarethe Kulke

Lenten Evensong Sunday, March 5

Please join us at St. Andrew's for Evensong on the first Sunday of Lent, March 5 at 5pm, to hear the exquisite 16th century anthem by Thomas Tallis, The Lamentations of Jeremiah. Tallis lived through the small pox epidemic of 1562 which rendered Queen Elizabeth I bald and pox marked. He also lived through the plague of 1563—wiping out a quarter of the population of London—as well as the Reformation which ripped the fabric of religious life asunder. Miranda Loud will be our guest organist and refreshments will follow. — Wardie Mannix

Gratitude

Annual Meeting

Thank you to everyone who attended and participated in the parish annual meeting last Sunday. There were 85 people in attendance. Many thanks to all who helped lead the meeting and for their diligent preparation which made the meeting go so smoothly. Thanks to Alan Joachim, head of the finance committee, and Arnout Eikeboom, the church treasurer, for their clear and concise presentation of the church finances. Many thanks to the church wardens, Lynda Sperry and Michael Vanin for their leadership and presentation of the parish strategic plan.

Strategic Plan

Thank you to everyone who worked so hard over the last year in creating the St. Andrew's strategic plan. Many thanks to all the vestry members who compiled the plans for their individual ministry areas. Thanks to Michael Kemp and Al Budney who acted as consultants on the planning process. Thanks to our church wardens, Lynda Sperry and Michael Vanin, for overseeing the plan. And a particular thanks to Lynda Sperry for her magnificent work in putting together the parish survey and analyzing the results.
