Collect of the Day

Celebrant Together we pray.

People Almighty and everlasting God, who in the Paschal mystery established the new covenant of reconciliation: Grant that all who have been reborn into the fellowship of Christ's Body may show forth in their lives what they profess by their faith; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Lesson: Acts 4:32-35

Now the whole group of those who believed were of one heart and soul, and no one claimed private ownership of any possessions, but everything they owned was held in common. With great power the apostles gave their testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all. There was not a needy person among them, for as many as owned lands or houses sold them and brought the proceeds of what was sold.

They laid it at the apostles' feet, and it was distributed to each as any had need.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 133

David Hurd

The congregation is encouraged to sing the psalm.

1 Oh, how good and ^{pleas}ant it ^{is}, *
when brethren ^{live to}gether in ^{unity}!

2 It is like fine ^{oil} upon the ^{head} *
that runs ^{down up}on the ^{beard},

†3 Upon the ^{beard} of ^{Aaron}, *
and runs down upon the ^{collar} of his ^{robe}.

4 It is like the ^{dew} of ^{Hermon} *
that ^{falls} upon the ^{hills} of ^{Zion}.

5 For there the LORD has or^{dained} the ^{blessing}: *
— ^{life} for ^{ever}more.

Second Lesson: 1 John 1:1-2:2

We declare to you what was from the beginning, what we have heard, what we have seen with our eyes, what we have looked at and touched with our hands, concerning the word of life—this life was revealed, and we have seen it and testify to it, and declare to you the eternal life that was with the Father and was revealed to us—we declare to you what we have seen and heard so that you also may have fellowship with us; and truly our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ. We are writing these things so that our joy may be complete.

This is the message we have heard from him and proclaim to you, that God is light and in him there is no darkness at all. If we say that we have fellowship with him while we are walking in darkness, we lie and do not do what is true; but if we walk in the light as he himself is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he who is faithful and just will forgive us our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say that we have

Gospel: John 20:19-31

Clergy The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained."

But Thomas (who was called the Twin), one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands, and put my finger in the mark of the nails and my hand in his side, I will not believe."

My little children, I am writing these things to you so that you may not sin. But if anyone does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous; and he is the atoning sacrifice for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the sins of the whole world finger in the mark of the nails and my hand in his side, I will not believe."

A week later his disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were shut, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it in my side. Do not doubt but believe." Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe."

Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book. But these are written

so that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that through believing you may have life in his name.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

About the Readings

From Preparing for Sunday http://standrewswellesley.org/worship_reading.html

Acts 4:32-35 In today's passage, Luke summarizes the life of the early Church in Jerusalem. Two descriptions of the believers' common life are given: complete community of goods and distribution to the needy, fulfilling the promise of Deuteronomy 15:4. The sharing of goods practiced by the Jerusalem church does not seem to have been repeated elsewhere. Although the care of the needy was always a feature of Christian communities, the important issue was not a particular economic principle, but the expression of the community's unity in love. The believers had one source and center of life, and were one in outwardly visible lifestyle.

Psalms 133 The psalmist offers a blessing for the covenant people that is also appropriate for families trying to live in unity.

1 John 1:1-2:2 The purpose of the message here is the attainment of "fellowship," oneness with Christ and other believers, in the face of threatened division. One divisive question was that of post-baptismal sin. The writer states that Christian believers are still sinful by nature and in act. Nonetheless, Jesus is our advocate, the one who speaks for us.

John 20:19-31 John's account of the first appearance of the risen Lord shows that Jesus has returned, bringing peace and joy. He shows his wounds to establish that the crucified Jesus and the risen Jesus are one and the same. As he had promised, he then gives the disciples a mission and breathes upon them the Holy Spirit. This is the new creation of humanity for eternal life. Just as Jesus' own ministry began with his empowerment by the Holy Spirit at his baptism, so each Christian is similarly empowered for ministry. Thomas personifies the elements of doubt that arise regarding the resurrection. He expresses his disbelief in exactly the way Jesus had decried. Yet, without touching the Lord, he can still be brought to penetrate the meaning behind the marvel and to make a full affirmation of Christian faith. He consummates the sequence of titles given to Jesus by giving him the ultimate one of God. Jesus' blessing in response to him answers the problem of believers ever since the eyewitnesses died. Verses 30-31 serve as a summary of John's entire message. They evaluate the content of the gospel, inviting all to come to the understanding of the meaning of Jesus' life, death and resurrection, and through belief to share in a saving relationship with him.

Firearms Safety Task Force

Our March forum on the question of firearms safety drew many parishioners and produced a lively discussion. Many participants also walked in the March for our Lives in Boston; but those present also expressed support for various other actions. A consensus emerged to form a task force to discuss options and develop a priority list of steps for inclusion among our goals in this area. A number of people volunteered but we also want to invite all members of the parish with interest to participate in the discussion to be as representative as possible of our views as a Christian community. Please email me or leave a note in the parish office. — Paul Merry • paul.merry@fairworkplace.net

Hotel and Airline Toiletries

We are collecting toiletries (soap, lotion, shampoo, and conditioner) that we will deliver to Salvation Army Miracle Kitchen monthly. If you travel, please bring your complimentary toiletries to St. Andrew's—there is a box at the back of the church where we are collecting these items. The folks who come to Miracle Kitchen for the meal will very much appreciate being able to leave dinner with a toiletry kit. Thank you.

Gratitude

Taizé-style Service

We gathered on Monday night amidst icons and flickering candles, chanting the start of Holy Week. Many thanks for the hard work of our planning team: Laura Brown MacKinnon, Margarethe Kulke, Liz Parsons, and Jenny Sawyer. Many thanks to the Adult Choir members who guided the beautiful chanting: Liz Dean, Katie Hodges, and Diane Mitchell.

Stations of the Cross

Thank you to Karina Cowperthwaite, Maggie Donahue, Lily Nystrom, and Elizabeth Robbins-Cole for their beautiful leadership of the Stations of the Cross on Tuesday of Holy Week.

Maundy Thursday Family Seder

Abundant thanks to Debbie Alexander for all her work to set up this fabulous family event, and to all those who contributed: Sarah Harris, Ingrid Houghton, Jen Martin, Katherine Roer, Jenny Sawyer, Heather Schaefer, and Elizabeth Svedlund.

Maundy Thursday Overnight Vigil

Thank you to all who spent an hour waiting and watching with Christ during our overnight vigil from Maundy Thursday to Good Friday: Frances Antonelli, Mark Benjamin, Heather Canapary, Paul Criswell, Peter Fergusson, Becky Hamlin, David Hamlin, Sarah Harris, Joanna Horobin, Alan Joachim, Scott Jones, Julie Koeninger, Pam Kubbins, Bill Li, Herb Nolan, Anne Manners, Ansley Martin, Lisa Onorato, Terri O'Toole, Caren Parker, Jenny Sawyer, Becky Taylor, Phillip Thiessen, Anne Tong, Candace Tong-Li, Kris Vanin, Michael Vanin, Nina Varghese, David Welch, and Penn Young.

Good Friday Hot Cross Buns & Crafts

The children of St. Andrew's observed Good Friday with a solemn service, followed by crafts and hot cross buns. Special thanks to Megan Burns, Erica Gelser, Jen Martin, and Katherine Roer, who were instrumental in setting up and running the event.

Easter Sunday

So many thank-yous are in order.

Acolytes Thank you to Jen Olivetti, who arranged the many acolytes who served during Easter and Holy Week, and thank you to all the young people who served as acolytes.

Altar Guild Thank you to all the members of the altar guild who worked tirelessly to prepare the many services during Holy Week and Easter.

Editors/Proofreaders Great thanks to Caren Parker and Sandra Rigney for reading the multitude of leaflets we used for Holy Week (and the rest of the year, too).

Flower Guild Many thanks to the flower guild for all their creativity and hard work in arranging the beautiful flowers that made the church look and smell so wonderful on Easter Sunday.

Junior Choir Thanks to the junior choir, who sang so beautifully at the 9am service on Easter Sunday.

Lay Eucharistic Ministers Thank you to all who served as lay eucharistic ministers at the services during Holy Week and Easter.

Lily Distributions Thank you to all the people who helped distribute the lilies after the Easter services to the homes of members of the congregation we wished to especially remember this Easter. We have had many expressions of thanks from those people who received lilies—we are told how meaningful it is to be remembered in this way.

Readers Many thanks to all those who shared God's Holy Word by reading Scripture lessons during the services of Holy Week and Easter.

Senior Choir Thank you to the choir for all your dedication and hard work during Holy Week and Easter. The music was fantastic and was a high point for many during this holy season.

Ushers Thanks to all the ushers who worked so skillfully to ensure that the "traffic flows of people" at our services were smoothly directed.
