Collect of the Day

Celebrant Together we pray.

People Grant us, O Lord, to trust in you with all our hearts; for, as you always resist the proud who confide in their own strength, so you never forsake those who make their boast of your mercy; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Lesson: Proverbs 22:1-2, 8-9, 22-23

A good name is to be chosen rather than great riches, and favor is better than silver or gold. The rich and the poor have this in common: the LORD is the maker of them all. Whoever sows injustice will reap calamity, and the rod of anger will fail. Those who are generous are blessed, for they share their bread with the poor. Do not rob the poor because they are poor, or crush the afflicted at the gate; for the LORD pleads their cause and despoils of life those who despoil them.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 125

David Hurd

The congregation is encouraged to sing the psalm.

- 1 Those who trust in the LORD are like ¹Moünt ¹Zion, *
which cannot be ¹moved, but stands ¹fast for ¹ever.
- 2 The hills stand a¹bout Je¹rusalem; *
so does the LORD stand round about his people,
from this time ¹forth for ¹ever¹more.
- 3 The scepter of the wicked shall not hold sway over the land al¹lotted to the ¹just, *
so that the just shall not ¹put their ¹hands to ¹evil.
- 4 Show your goodness, O LORD, to ¹those who are ¹good *
and to ¹those who are ¹true of ¹heart.
- 5 As for those who turn aside to crooked ways,
the LORD will lead them away with the ¹evil¹doers; *
but ¹peace be up¹on ¹Israel.

Second Lesson: James 2:1-10, 14-17

My brothers and sisters, do you with your acts of favoritism really believe in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ? For if a person with gold rings and in fine clothes comes into your assembly, and if a poor person in dirty clothes also comes in, and if you take notice of the one wearing the fine clothes and say, "Have a seat here, please," while to the one who is poor you say, "Stand there," or, "Sit at my feet," have you not made distinctions among yourselves, and become judges with evil thoughts? Listen, my beloved brothers and sisters. Has not God chosen the poor in the world to be rich in faith and to be heirs of the kingdom that he has promised to those who love him? But you have dishonored the poor. Is it not the rich who oppress you? Is it not they who drag you into court? Is it not they who blaspheme the excellent name that was invoked over you?

You do well if you really fulfill the royal law according to the scripture, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." But if you show partiality, you commit sin and are convicted by the law as transgressors. For whoever keeps the whole law but fails in one point has become accountable for all of it. What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if you say you have faith but do not have works? Can faith save you? If a brother or sister is naked and lacks daily food, and one of you says to them, "Go in peace; keep warm and eat your fill," and yet you do not supply their bodily needs, what is the good of that? So faith by itself, if it has no works, is dead.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Gospel: Mark 7:24-37

Clergy The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Mark.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus set out and went away to the region of Tyre. He entered a house and did not want anyone to know he was there. Yet he could not escape notice, but a woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit immediately heard about him, and she came and bowed down at his feet. Now the woman was a Gentile, of Syrophenician origin. She begged him to cast the demon out of her daughter. He said to her, "Let the children be fed first, for it is not fair to take the children's food and throw it to the dogs." But she answered him, "Sir, even the dogs under the table eat the children's crumbs." Then he said to her, "For saying that, you may go—the demon has left your daughter." So she went home, found the child lying on the bed, and the demon gone.

the Sea of Galilee, in the region of the Decapolis. They brought to him a deaf man who had an impediment in his speech; and they begged him to lay his hand on him. He took him aside in private, away from the crowd, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spat and touched his tongue. Then looking up to heaven, he sighed and said to him, "Ephphatha," that is, "Be opened." And immediately his ears were opened, his tongue was released, and he spoke plainly. Then Jesus ordered them to tell no one; but the more he ordered them, the more zealously they proclaimed it. They were astounded beyond measure, saying, "He has done everything well; he even makes the deaf to hear and the mute to speak."

Then he returned from the region of Tyre, and went by way of Sidon towards

Offertory Anthem Draw us in the Spirit's Tether Harold W. Friedell (1905-1958)

*Draw us in the Spirit's tether,
For when humbly in Thy name,
Two or three are met together
Thou are in the midst of them;
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Touch we now Thy garment's hem.*

*All our meals and all our living
Make as sacraments of Thee,
That by caring, helping, giving
We may true disciples be.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
We will serve Thee faithfully.*

*As the brethren used to gather
In the name of Christ to sup,
Then with thanks to God the Father
Break the bread and bless the cup,
Alleluia! Alleluia!
So knit Thou our friendship up.*

About the Readings

From Preparing for Sunday http://standrewswellesley.org/worship_reading.html

Proverbs 22:1-2, 8-9, 22-23 The Book of Proverbs consists of short, memorable sayings drawn from human experience which are shaped poetically for memory and meaning. Proverbs generally uses the parallelism of couplets to juxtapose truths and tease out new meanings. Since they are practical, proverbs serve a multitude of functions for people in their communities including observation, command, admonition and prohibition. In general they help to preserve tradition, promote proper behavior and ponder the mystery of life. They promote the mastery of everyday life by directly relating it to the mystery of God's creation. In today's reading, the proverbs relate the social status and guide the social interactions of the haves—the rich—and the have-nots—the poor. Justice and generosity will be rewarded by God, who is especially attuned to their plight.

Psalms 125 This is a psalm of trust that dispels the anxieties that God will waver in faithfulness to the people. The psalmist encourages faith as unshakeable and firm as the mountains surrounding Zion (verses 1-2). He prays that the people will not be infected by the evils of wickedness (verses 3-4) and that God's judgments will always be favorable (verses 5-6).

James 2:1-10, 14-17 James here focuses on favoritism shown to the rich and on the relationship of faith and works. God regards all people as equal (Job 34:19) and so should we. This is consistent with God's special concern for the poor, a major theme in the Old and New Testaments. The early Church was composed mostly of the poor. In looking at the section on faith and works, keep in mind that James and Paul use the word faith in different ways: James means intellectual assent to theological statements; Paul means a total loving relationship with God. Thus James's "works" are the practical counterpart of Paul's "fruit of the Spirit" (Galatians 5:22-23), the result of "faith working through love" (Galatians 5:6). James points out that living faith is demonstrated by works.

Mark 7:24-37 The miracle story in this passage is told only by Mark, not the other gospel writers, as is the story of the blind man of Bethsaida (8:22-26), with which it has many features in common. Spittle was believed to have curative qualities. The choice of the word translated he “had an impediment in his speech” creates a direct reference to Isaiah 35:6, the only other place in the Bible where this word occurs. Thus, the messianic promises of that passage would come to the minds of those who had already heard of the healing of the paralytic (2:3-12) and would hear of the healing of the blind (8:22-26; 10:46-52). Mark may also intend the story as a comment on the disciples, who so far have been “deaf” to Jesus’ word. However, at Caesarea Philippi they will have their tongues loosened as Peter confesses his faith (8:27-30). Yet the time for open proclamation of Jesus’ messiahship has not yet come. That will come only in Jesus’ suffering and death (8:31).

Coventry Suppers – Sign up!

Coventry Suppers are a fun and meaningful tradition at St. Andrew's. If you are a long-time member of St. Andrew's and have never participated in a group, this might be the year! If you are new to church, this is a great way to meet other members of the congregation. These casual evenings, where all members of the group contribute dishes, are a great way for people to meet and connect on a new and different level.

Sign up by Sunday, September 30, on the clipboard in the narthex, or by visiting the St. Andrew's website and clicking on SERVE and then on VOLUNTEER SIGN-UP. The fellowship and membership committee chairs will form small groups of 8-10 adults and will distribute a list of groups in early October. A "first convener" will be designated to host the first supper, at which the group can plan its subsequent gatherings.

“Refreshing” the Parish Prayer List

Praying for our loved ones at times of need is a central part of our worship and church life. We would like to remind you that at the beginning of every month, we “refresh” the prayer list. We remove names of people for whom we have been asked to pray if we have not heard that you wish us to keep your loved one on the list for the next month. We are happy to keep people on the list for as long as they are in need of our prayers. However, our proactive approach helps prevent a buildup of people on the list after the need for our prayers for that person has passed. Thanks for your help with this.

Join the Altar Guild

We happily welcome any member of the church who would be interested in joining us “doing God’s dishes” or “setting the props for the show.” The time commitment is low (generally one service a month), but the rewards (and fellowship) are great. New members work alongside experienced members as they train, and there is much flexibility to work around your schedule.
