Collect of the Day

Celebrant Together we pray.

People Almighty and everlasting God, whose will it is to restore all things in your well-beloved Son, the King of kings and Lord of lords: Mercifully grant that the peoples of the earth, divided and enslaved by sin, may be freed and brought together under his most gracious rule; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Lesson: 2 Samuel 23:1-7

These are the last words of David: The oracle of David, son of Jesse, the oracle of the man whom God exalted, the anointed of the God of Jacob, the favorite of the Strong One of Israel: The spirit of the LORD speaks through me, his word is upon my tongue.

The God of Israel has spoken, the Rock of Israel has said to me: One who rules over people justly, ruling in the fear of God, is like the light of morning, like the sun rising on a cloudless morning, gleaming from the rain on the grassy land. Is not my house like this with God? For he has made with me an everlasting covenant, ordered in all things and secure. Will he not cause to prosper all my help and my desire? But the godless are all like thorns that are thrown away; for they cannot be picked up with the hand; to touch them one uses an iron bar or the shaft of a spear. And they are entirely consumed in fire on the spot.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 132:1-13

John Goss

The congregation is encouraged to sing the psalm.

- 1 LORD, re¹member¹ David, *
and all the¹ hardships¹ he en¹dured;
- 2 How he swore an¹ oath to the¹ LORD *
and vowed a vow to the¹ Mighty¹ One of¹ Jacob:
- 3 "I will not come under the¹ roof of my¹ house, *
nor¹ climb up¹ into my¹ bed;
- 4 I will not allow my¹ eyes to¹ sleep, *
nor¹ let my¹ eyelids¹ slumber;
- †5 Until I find a¹ place for the¹ LORD, *
a dwelling for the¹ Mighty¹ One of¹ Jacob."
- 6 "The ark! We¹ heard it was in¹ Ephratah; *
we¹ found it in the¹ fields of¹ Jearim.
- 7 Let us go to¹ Göd's¹ dwelling place; *
let us fall upon our¹ knees be¹fore his¹ footstool."
- 8 Arise, O¹ LORD, into your¹ resting-place, *
you and the¹ ark¹ of your¹ strength.
- 9 Let your priests be¹ clothed with¹ righteousness; *
let your faithful¹ people¹ sing with¹ joy.

- 10 For your servant¹ David's¹ sake, *
do not turn away the¹ face of¹ your A¹noointed.
- 11 The LORD has sworn an¹ oath to¹ David; *
in¹ truth, he¹ will not¹ break it:
- 12 "A son, the¹ fruit of your¹ body *
will I¹ set up¹ on your¹ throne.
- 13 If your children keep my covenant
and my testimonies that¹ I shall¹ teach them, * their children will sit upon your¹ throne for¹ ever¹ more."

Second Lesson: Revelation 1:4b-8

Grace to you and peace from him who is and who was and who is to come, and from the seven spirits who are before his throne, and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth. To him who loves us and freed us from our sins by his blood, and made us to be a kingdom, priests serving his God and Father, to him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen. Look! He is coming with the clouds; every eye will see him, even those who pierced him; and on his account all the tribes of the earth will wail. So it is to be. Amen. "I am the Alpha and the Omega," says the Lord God, who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty.

Gospel: John 18:33-37

Clergy The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Pilate entered the headquarters again, summoned Jesus, and asked him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" Jesus answered, "Do you ask this on your own, or did others tell you about me?" Pilate replied, "I am not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests have handed you over to me. What have you done?" Jesus answered, "My kingdom is not from this world. If my kingdom were from this world, my followers would be fighting to keep me from being handed over to the Jews. But as it is, my kingdom is not from here." Pilate asked him, "So you are a king?" Jesus answered, "You say that I am a king. For this I was born, and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice."

Clergy The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Offertory Anthem What wondrous love is this

American folk hymn
arr. Geoff Weaver (b. 1943)

*What wondrous love is this,
O my soul! O my soul!
What wondrous love is this!
O my soul!
What wondrous love is this!
That caused the Lord of bliss
To lay aside his crown
For my soul, for my soul!
To lay aside his crown for my soul.
To God and to the Lamb,
I will sing, I will sing;
To God and to the Lamb,
I will sing--
To God and to the Lamb,
who is the great I AM,
while millions join the theme,
I will sing, I will sing!
while millions join the theme,
I will sing!*

*And while from death I'm free,
I'll sing on, I'll sing on,
And while from death I'm free,
I'll sing on.
and while from death I'm free,
I'll sing and joyful be,
and through eternity
I'll sing on, I'll sing on,
and through eternity
I'll sing on.*

*Peace be to you and grace from him
Who freed us from our sins,
Who loved us all and shed his blood
That we might saved be.*

*Sing holy, holy to our Lord,
The Lord, Almighty God,
Who was and is and is to come;
Sing holy, holy, Lord!*

*Rejoice in heaven, all ye that dwell therein,
Rejoice on earth, ye saints below,
For Christ is coming, is coming soon!*

*E'en so, Lord Jesus, quickly come,

About The Readings

From Preparing for Sunday http://standrewswellesley.org/worship_reading.html

2 Samuel 23:1-7 1 and 2 Samuel, originally one book, tell of the transition in Israel's leadership from a system of charismatically appointed judges who appeared in times of crisis to a monarchy that would imitate the governing systems of the neighboring nations. Samuel, the last and greatest judge, grudgingly anoints Saul as the first king. After a chaotic reign ending in civil war, Saul dies violently and the tribes of Israel unite in their support of David as their new king. The rest of the book recounts the turbulent story of David's kingship. The author highlights his attempt to build a royal dynasty by centralizing government and worship in Jerusalem and the threats to dissolve the dynasty through family problems. Today's reading recounts David's last words and affirms that God has spoken through David's words and deeds. God will ensure that David's dynasty will prosper and grow.

Psalm 132:1-13 Though this psalm is most probably pre-exilic, it acquired messianic significance in postexilic use. It is basically a processional hymn, probably used in the temple as part of the celebration of the king's enthronement. It calls to remembrance in a liturgical context the search for the ark (1 Samuel 7:1; 2 Samuel 6:2; 1 Chronicles 13:5-6), the covenant with David (2 Samuel 7:12-16; 2 Chronicles 6:41-42), and the special sanctity of Jerusalem. The Davidic covenant, as here recalled (vv. 11-12), incorporates the obligations of the Sinai covenant (Deuteronomy 30:15-20; 1 Kings 2:1-4). The basis for the psalmist's confidence is God's choice of Zion as God's "habitation" and "resting place for ever."

Revelation 1:4b-8 Revelation, (Greek, apocalypse) takes its name from its first verse, which both describes its content and classifies it as the primary Christian example of apocalyptic writing. Today's reading forms the introduction, which weaves together Old Testament images and themes shaped by the worship experience of the Church. The book itself is intended to be read aloud to the assembled worshippers, upon whom a blessing, the first of seven (14:13; 16:15; 19:9; 20:6; 22:7, 14), is pronounced. The risen Jesus is identified as a "faithful witness," literally martyr, "firstborn of the dead" and "ruler of the kings of the earth.” (v. 5). His continuing love and his final redemption of his people frees them to fulfill their priestly calling to celebrate God’s presence in worship. The divine self-proclamation (v. 8) combines titles of God from the Old Testament as developed in Christian worship. God is Alpha and Omega—first and last, whose existence spans all time. This title is here and in 21:6 applied to God the Father, and in 1:17 and 22:13 to the Son. God is also described as “almighty” (v. 8), the only attribute that the Christian creed mentions about God the Father.

John 18:33-37 The conversation of Jesus with Pilate, in contrast to his silence as recorded in the other gospels, may stem from John’s interest in showing Pilate’s concern to ascertain whether Jesus was a revolutionary. Jesus’ counter-question seeks to determine whether Pilate is thinking of kingship in political (Roman) or religious (Jewish) terms. He then goes on to say that his kingdom is not “from this world” (v. 36)—it is not determined by, derived from or grounded in this world. In the world, Jesus witnesses to the truth of the reality of God, a revelation that has the effect of judgment (7:7). Jesus, not Pilate, is really the judge in this situation. Those who are grounded in the truth listen to Jesus with understanding and acceptance. Pilate tries to avoid making a decision between the world and truth.

Notices & Announcements

Newcomers and visitors: We extend a warm welcome to those who are new in our community. Please fill out one of the welcome cards in the narthex (foyer) and hand it to a greeter for a fuller welcome!

Informal Service & Potluck

Our next informal service will be tonight, November 25, at 5pm, focusing on thanksgiving for all the blessings of our lives. A potluck dinner will follow. A main dish will be provided; bring an appetizer, salad, or dessert to share.

Pledging for 2019

Thank you to all who have sent in pledges for the 2019 Stewardship Campaign. The results are very encouraging, but we still have a ways to go to meet our target. If you have not yet pledged, please do so as soon as possible so we can finalize our 2019 budget. You can send in a pledge form by mail, put one in the plate, or pledge on the GIVE tab of our website. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to speak to me, a member of the stewardship campaign, the wardens, or the rector. — Allen Jones

Music Committee

The music committee was formed after the last parish survey to support and strengthen our music ministry. We welcome your feedback on our music program! Committee members Wendy Barry, Peter Lull, Karen Pekowitz, Cynthia Scott, Barbara Shellito, and Margaret Zusky meet with Adrian and Wardie on a regular basis and consider all suggestions. Please share your thoughts with one of the committee members or contact worship@standrewswellesley.org.

St. Stephen's Holiday Dinners

In today's bulletin you will find an envelope labeled "Holiday Dinners." This collection helps us provide 60+ bags of Thanksgiving meal fixings and Christmas gift boxes for seniors, among other things, for those at St. Stephen's Church in Boston. Make checks payable to St. Andrew's, with "Holiday Dinners" in the memo. — Heidi Harper

Blue Christmas Service

Sometimes Advent and Christmas are full of joy and soulful satisfaction; in other years, we find ourselves in the midst of loss, illness, or disappointment. If you, or someone you care about, has had a hard year, and you are longing to make room for the Spirit of God in a time of struggle or loss, please join us on Wednesday, December 19, from 6:30pm to 7:15pm. We will rest in the promise of Christ, remembering that even in times of sorrow, God's love and grace can find us and support us. This service will be held in the Children's Chapel. All are welcome.

Sox Box

Twice a year, in June and November, for over 10 years, St. Andrew's parishioners have generously provided socks for homeless women and their families. Since 2007 we have donated 8,453 pairs of socks! As we step towards the cold and wet of winter, we have the option of warm and weather resistant boots. Our marginalized citizens do not. Hence, changing socks and washing and drying them at the shelters becomes paramount. Please be a part of this vital outreach endeavor as it is one small way for each of us to make a difference in the lives of those less fortunate than we. Feed the "Sox Box" outside the library with men's white crew socks, size L or XL or send a check to St. Andrew's with "Sox" in the memo line. Thank you for your continuing generosity.

Parish Photo Release

We recognize that safety and privacy are of primary concern to members of our congregation. After researching best practices and reaching out to our national church, the communications committee developed a policy not to identify anyone by name in website photos in the fall of 2013. We also agree to publish the following release language in registration forms, The CALL, service leaflets, annual reports, and any future publications. This language is as follows:

Occasionally, we may take photographs or videos of St. Andrew's-related activities. By appearing at and/or participating in any such activities, you are aware that you may appear in such pictures and agree to let us use such images in related communications (including print and web usage), and you agree to release St. Andrew's from any liability, damages, or claims whatsoever that might arise from such use. This notice also applies to any members of your family appearing and/or participating in such church activities. Our policy is that we will not identify anyone by name on website photos.

For any questions or more information about photos and usage please contact the vestryperson for communications

Collecting Coats for Kids and Adults

As the cold weather sets in, there are thousands of people in our area who are without a warm winter coat. Gently used warm coats of all sizes—infant through adult XXL—are accepted. Donated coats will be cleaned free of charge by Anton's Cleaners. Once collected and cleaned, the coats will be distributed through the Coats for Kids Distribution Partners network. This collection will continue through December 31. Please check your closets and drop your unwanted coats in the collection box in the office corridor.
