

CELEBRATING 125 YEARS

ST. ANDREW'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH

History from our Archives

The Senior High Youth Group wishes to thank every parishioner who supported, for three consecutive Saturdays (some on multiple occasions), the Car Wash to raise funds for their upcoming Dominican Republic Mission. The weather was another strong supporter of this effort, as well as the pollen that just kept coming down on every vehicle in Wellesley! The YG members worked hard for hours, getting better at the job each week, raising a total of $953! Thanks again to everyone. We hope to see you again during next year's pollen season. 2001

In a unanimous vote of support, the vestry has authorized a St. Andrew's Capital Campaign with a goal of $4 million: $3 million to be raised during the three-year campaign period and the first $1 million in planned gift intentions of an ongoing planned giving program. In the coming months we will begin in earnest to prepare for the campaign, including the formation of a Campaign Steering Committee, and will do detailed planning for the many capital projects. We are extremely grateful to all of you who have contributed your time, talent, and views thus far and look to the entire St. Andrew's parish for your ongoing interest, feedback, and support at this important moment in our life together. 2001

Please remember that our church school is run on a cooperative basis. As you head down to coffee hour today, take a moment to peruse the recruitment board at the bottom of the stairs and see where you can fill in a vacancy. 2001

As of November 11, 2001, St. Andrew's Church has received $5,039.32 for the September 11 Disaster Relief Fund. Thank you for your kindness and generosity.

LOST: Two large glass punch bowls are missing from the kitchen. Please return as soon as possible.

In honor of our patron saint, the Flower Guild has created the floral cross in front of the altar which signifies the cross on which Andrew is said to have died proclaiming his faith. The floral carpet at the base of the font is typical of ground mosaics used for centuries in the Middle East. In England, the tradition was introduced by Henry, 15th Duke of Norfolk, in 1873, in Arundel Cathedral, Sussex. There the carpet measured 90 feet long, however, our carpet is more modest but no less intensive in form and labor.

Thank you for returning the glass punch bowl. One large glass punch bowl is still missing, please return as soon as possible.

Today and next week at coffee hour, Christmas gift tags featuring selections from stained-glass windows of St. Andrew's will be on sale to benefit St. Stephen's Food Pantry. These tags are produced on high quality stickers to affix to holiday presents, and cost $3.00 for a sheet of 10 labels. Show your discriminating taste while helping those less fortunate in this season of sharing. 2001

All are welcome to join us for a hot breakfast on Sunday, January 20. "Breakfast Betweens" are held between services so you can come after the 8am service or before the 10am service. We will try doing breakfast on the third Sunday of the month, if we can find mouths to feed—so please join us! Drop in when you are able—or plan ahead, to help us count heads and reserve a spot.

The St. Stephen's food pantry feeds double the number of people on a weekly basis that it did just three years ago, while during the same period the cost of food provided has been cut in half. Cheers to the St. Andrew's volunteers who help make this happen.

Continuing a need for Good/Bad Toys, we remind the congregation that the Middle School Group is collecting toys for two simultaneous campaigns this holiday season. In the narthex you will find one box labeled "Good Toys" which benefits a Christmas Party for the children of women who reside at Second Step Shelter for Battered Women. Box two, labeled "Bad Toys," is for collecting unwanted toys that resemble weapons of war or any form of violence and destruction, which collaborates with the efforts of the Wellesley Friends Meeting which is coordinating a town-wide public ceremony in favor of peace. This effort culminates with the creation of a sculpture made of the war toys gathered by all. Please give as much as you are able for either or both of these boxes until Sunday, December 15. 2002

During coffee hour sample some delicious, organically grown coffee, purchased from producers at Fair market value through the international program, Pura Vida Coffee. The Senior High Youth Group will be selling coffee by the bag, with all proceeds destined to the 2003 Service Mission Fund.

Church Pews need new homes! Through the renovation process we have determined that three pews from the Children's Chapel are no longer needed for that space. We hope that some members of the congregation may have a place for them in their homes. A modest donation to the church in exchange for a pew would be most welcome! 2003

Collect of the Day

Celebrant Together we pray.

People Lord, we pray that your grace may always precede and follow us, that we may continually be given to good works; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Lesson: Jeremiah 29:1, 4-7

These are the words of the letter that the prophet Jeremiah sent from Jerusalem to the remaining elders among the exiles, and to the priests, the prophets, and all the people, whom Nebuchadnezzar had taken into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon. Thus says the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, to all the exiles whom I have sent into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon: Build houses and live in them; plant gardens and eat what they produce. Take wives and have sons and daughters; take wives for your sons, and give your daughters in marriage, that they may bear sons and daughters; multiply there, and do not decrease. But seek the welfare of the city where I have sent you into exile, and pray to the Lord on its behalf, for in its welfare you will find your welfare.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The congregation is encouraged to sing the psalm.

- 1 Be joyful in God, all you lands; *
sing the glory of his Name;
sing the glory of his praise.
- 2 Say to God, "How awesome are your deeds! *
because of your great strength your enemies cringe before you.
- 3 All the earth bows down before you, *
sings to you, sings out your Name."
- 4 Come now and see the works of God, *
how wonderful he is in his doing toward all people.
- 5 He turned the sea into dry land,
so that they went through the water on foot, *
and there we rejoiced in him.
- 6 In his might he rules for ever;
his eyes keep watch over the nations; *
let no rebel rise up against him.
- 7 Bless our God, you peoples; *
make the voice of his praise to be heard;
- 8 Who holds our souls in life, *
and will not allow our feet to slip.
- 9 For you, O God, have proved us; *
you have tried us just as silver is tried.
- 10 You brought us into the snare; *
you laid heavy burdens upon our backs.
- †11 You let enemies ride over our heads;
we went through fire and water; *
but you brought us out into a place of refreshment.

Second Lesson: 2 Timothy 2:8-15

Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, a descendant of David—that is my gospel, for which I suffer hardship, even to the point of being chained like a criminal. But the word of God is not chained. Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, so that they may also obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory. The saying is sure: If we have died with him, we will also live with him; if we endure, we will also reign with him; if we deny him, he will also deny us; if we are faithless, he remains faithful—for he cannot deny himself.

Remind them of this and warn them before God that they are to avoid wrangling over words, which does no good but only ruins those who are listening. Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved by him, a worker who has no need to be ashamed, rightly explaining the word of truth.

Gospel: Luke 17:11-19

Clergy The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

On the way to Jerusalem, Jesus was going through the region between Samaria and Galilee. As he entered a village, ten lepers approached him. Keeping their distance, they called out, saying, “Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!” When he saw them, he said to them, “Go and show yourselves to the priests.” And as they went, they were made clean. Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice. He prostrated himself at Jesus’ feet and thanked him. And he was a Samaritan. Then Jesus asked, “Were not ten made clean? But the other nine, where are they? Was none of them found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?” Then he said to him, “Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well.”

Communion Anthem Jesus Christ the apple tree

Daniel Pinkham (1923-2006)

Text: Anonymous

from a collection of Joshua Smith, New Hampshire, 1784

The tree of life my soul hath seen, Laden with fruit and always green: (x2)

The trees of nature fruitless be Compared with Christ the apple tree.

His beauty doth all things excel: By faith I know, but ne'er can tell (x2)

The glory which I now can see In Jesus Christ the apple tree.

For happiness I long have sought, And pleasure dearly I have bought: (x2)

I missed of all; but now I see 'Tis found in Christ the apple tree.

I'm weary with my former toil, Here I will sit and rest awhile: (x2)

Under the shadow I will be, Of Jesus Christ the apple tree.

This fruit doth make my soul to thrive, It keeps my dying faith alive; (x2)

Which makes my soul in haste to be With Jesus Christ the apple tree.

About the Readings

From Preparing for Sunday http://standrewswellesley.org/worship_reading.html

Jeremiah 29:1, 4-7 Today's reading offers an excerpt from the letter of encouragement that Jeremiah wrote to the first group of Judah's leaders taken off to exile in Babylon in 598 BC (about 10 years before the destruction of Jerusalem in 587). Jeremiah shares with them God's message to adjust to their new situation and prosper, even to the point of praying for their Babylonian captors. Although it is not spelled out clearly in this selection, what underlies Jeremiah's encouragement is his belief that these exiles, since they are the cream of Judah's nobility, are also the best hope for the future restoration of the people. Thus though they are now in exile from Judah, they remain under the watchful eyes of God who will care for them and bring them back.

Psalms 66:1-11 This psalm of praise and thanksgiving is divided into several parts, which may have been composed or used at different times. The first part (vv. 1-4) is a hymn to God. Verses 5-12 give thanks for the deliverance of people through God's saving power, as shown in the crossing of the Red Sea and/or the Jordan (v. 6). The acts of God were not just past history but were made present through recollection and reenactment in the liturgy. So the exodus events became a way to understand the return from exile in Babylon (vv. 10, 12). Likewise for Christians in Eastertide, this psalm speaks of participation, through baptism, in Christ's resurrection.

2 Timothy 2:8-15 Today's reading consists of an eloquent last testament of Paul (vv. 8-10) and a quotation from a baptismal hymn (vv. 11-13), sandwiched between some proverb-like sayings (vv. 3-7) and advice on dealing with heretics (vv. 14-15). The sayings use favorite metaphors of Paul's to urge single-minded commitment, self-discipline and labor for reward. Verses 8-10 consist of a brief credal statement and a reminder that the apostle can still minister, even in chains. The hymn recalls the reality of baptism, perhaps in answer to persecution and the temptation to deny Christ. Even then the Lord is faithful. In dealing with his opponents, Timothy is to avoid argumentation, presenting "the word of truth" (v. 15), the gospel, with which he has been entrusted.

Luke 17:11-19 The story of the cleansing of the 10 lepers is found only in Luke. His focus, however, is not in the healing but in the response. Jesus, the beneficent healer, gives grace to all and receives thankful homage from the foreigner. The leper's faith has made him whole and has also saved him. The healing miracle is real for all 10 but is not equivalent to salvation, which requires a change of inner orientation. As this story is juxtaposed with last week's parable (17:7-10), we learn that Jesus' disciples are exhorted not to seek thanks but to give it.

Healing Prayer

Healing prayers is a widespread ancient tradition within the Episcopal Church and we are making it available at our Sunday services. During the time people are receiving communion at the front altar rail, one of the clergy will be on duty at the transept altar to offer healing prayers. Tell the clergy person what you wish to pray for: you can request a prayer for yourself or for someone else. For example, someone might say, "please pray for my husband facing a difficult time at work," or "please pray for my mother facing an operation," or "please pray for my son having a tough time at college." In response, the clergy will quietly and discreetly offer a healing prayer for the situation.

Gratitude

B-READY after-school program

Thanks so much to the volunteers Bonnie Akins, Heidi Harper, Cam McCormick, Llynda McFarlane, and Christy West, who baked eight large casseroles of macaroni and cheese last Sunday. The casseroles, along with 100 mandarin orange cups, were delivered to St. Stephen's for them to serve at the B-READY after-school program during the week. They really appreciate our efforts!

Rite-13 Lock-In

Thank you to all the parents and kids who made Rite-13 a success, from the food-fetchers to the sleeping bag deliverers to the sleepover chaperones! What a blast!

St Andrew's Indaba Team

Many thanks to the team of parishioners who represented St. Andrew's on our visit to St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Bedford last weekend as part of the Diocesan "Indaba" Parish Exchange Program. It was great to see how St. Paul's is thriving under the leadership of their rector, Rev. Chris Wendell, a former associate rector for youth and family at St. Andrew's.
