Collect of the Day

Celebrant Together we pray.

People Give us grace, O Lord, to answer readily the call of our Savior Jesus Christ and proclaim to all people the Good News of his salvation, that we and the whole world may perceive the glory of his marvelous works; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Lesson: Nehemiah 8:1-3, 5-6, 8-10

All the people of Israel gathered together into the square before the Water Gate. They told the scribe Ezra to bring the book of the law of Moses, which the Lord had given to Israel. Accordingly, the priest Ezra brought the law before the assembly, both men and women and all who could hear with understanding. This was on the first day of the seventh month. He read from it facing the square before the Water Gate from early morning until midday, in the presence of the men and the women and those who could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive to the book of the law. And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people, for he was standing above all the people; and when he opened it, all the people stood up. Then Ezra blessed the Lord, the great God, and all the people answered, "Amen, Amen," lifting up their hands. Then they bowed their heads and worshiped the Lord with their faces to the ground. So they read from the book, from the law of God, with interpretation. They gave the sense, so that the people understood the reading.

And Nehemiah, who was the governor, and Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who taught the people said to all the people, "This day is holy to the Lord your God; do not mourn or weep." For all the people wept when they heard the words of the law. Then he said to them, "Go your way, eat the fat and drink sweet wine and send portions of them to those for whom nothing is prepared, for this day is holy to our Lord; and do not be grieved, for the joy of the Lord is your strength."

Psalm 19

David Hurd (after Gibbons)

The congregation is encouraged to sing the psalm.

- 1 The heavens declare the ¹glory of ¹God, *
and the ¹firmament shows his ¹handiwork.
- 2 One day tells its ¹tale to an ¹other, *
and one night imparts ¹knowledge to an ¹other.
- 3 Although they have no ¹words or ¹language, *
and their ¹voices are not ¹heard,
- 4 Their sound has gone out into ¹all ¹lands, *
and their message to the ¹ends of the ¹world.
- 5 In the deep has he set a pa¹vilion for the ¹sun; *
it comes forth like a bridegroom out of his chamber;

- 6 It goes forth from the uttermost edge of the heavens
and runs about to the ¹end of it a ¹gain; *
nothing is ¹hidden from its ¹burning ¹heat.
- 7 The law of the LORD is perfect and re¹vives the ¹soul; *
the testimony of the LORD is sure and gives ¹wisdom ¹to the ¹innocent.
- 8 The statutes of the LORD are just and re¹joice the ¹heart; *
the commandment of the LORD is clear and gives ¹light ¹to the ¹eyes.
- 9 The fear of the LORD is clean and en¹dures for ¹ever; *
the judgments of the LORD are true and ¹righteous ¹alto¹gether.
- 10 More to be desired are they than gold, more than ¹much fine ¹gold, *
sweeter far than honey, than ¹honey ¹in the ¹comb.
- 11 By them also is your ¹servant en¹lightened, *
and in keeping them ¹there is ¹great re¹ward.
- 12 Who can tell how ¹often he of¹fends? *
— ¹cleanse me from my ¹secret ¹faults.
- 13 Above all, keep your servant from presumptuous sins;
let them not get do¹minion ¹over me; *
then shall I be whole and sound,
and ¹innocent of a ¹great of¹fense.
- 14 Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be ac¹ceptable in your ¹sight, *
O LORD, my ¹strength and ¹my re¹deemer.

Second Lesson: 1 Corinthians 12:12-31a

Just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. For in the one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and we were all made to drink of one Spirit.

Indeed, the body does not consist of one member but of many. If the foot would say, “Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body,” that would not make it any less a part of the body. And if the ear would say, “Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body,” that would not make it any less a part of the body. If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be? But as it is, God arranged the members in the body, each one of them, as he chose. If all were a single member, where would the body be? As it is, there are many members, yet one body. The eye cannot say to the hand, "I have no need of you," nor again the head to the feet, "I have no need of you." On the contrary, the members of the body that seem to be weaker are indispensable, and those members of the body that we think less honorable we clothe with greater honor, and our less respectable members are treated with greater respect; whereas our more respectable members do not need this. But God has so arranged the body, giving the greater honor to the inferior member, that there may be no dissension within the body, but the members may have the same care for one another. If one member suffers, all suffer together with it; if one member is honored, all rejoice together with it.

Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it. And God has appointed in the church first apostles, second prophets, third teachers; then deeds of power, then gifts of healing, forms of assistance, forms of leadership, various kinds of tongues. Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work miracles? Do all possess gifts of healing? Do all speak in tongues? Do all interpret? But strive for the greater gifts

Gospel: Luke 4:14-21

Clergy The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Luke

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus, filled with the power of the Spirit, returned to Galilee, and a report about him spread through all the surrounding country. He began to teach in their synagogues and was praised by everyone.

When he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, he went to the synagogue on the sabbath day, as was his custom. He stood up to read, and the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written: "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor."

And he rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him. Then he began to say to them, "Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing."

Phishing and Spoofing Attempts

Email phishing is the act of impersonating a business or other entity for the purpose of tricking the recipient of email into giving up sensitive personal information. Spoofing uses deception to trick users into providing sensitive information. Display name spoofing is a type of email spoofing, in which only the email sender's display name is forged. Somebody can do this by registering a new gmail account with the same name as the contact they want to impersonate. This is what keeps happening with Adrian's name. In most cases, if you hover your cursor over his name you will see the email address is not his "standrewswellesley.org" address and you can safely block that sender. Please google how to block senders according to what email client provider you use (Gmail, Verizon, iPhone, or Outlook etc.).
