Collect of the Day

Celebrant Together we pray.

People Almighty and everlasting God, who in the Paschal mystery established the new covenant of reconciliation: Grant that all who have been reborn into the fellowship of Christ's Body may show forth in their lives what they profess by their faith; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Lesson: Acts 5:27-32

When the temple police had brought the apostles, they had them stand before the council. The high priest questioned them, saying, "We gave you strict orders not to teach in this name, yet here you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching and you are determined to bring this man's blood on us." But Peter and the apostles answered, "We must obey God rather than any human authority. The God of our ancestors raised up Jesus, whom you had killed by hanging him on a tree. God exalted him at his right hand as Leader and Savior that he might give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins. And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey him."

Second Lesson: Revelation 1:4-8

John to the seven churches that are in Asia: Grace to you and peace from him who is and who was and who is to come, and from the seven spirits who are before his throne, and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth.

To him who loves us and freed us from our sins by his blood, and made us to be a kingdom, priests serving his God and Father, to him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.

Look! He is coming with the clouds; every eye will see him, even those who

Gradual Hymn 206    "O sons and daughters, let us sing!"

O filii et filiae

Gospel: John 20:19-31

Clergy      The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to John.

People      Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained."

pierced him; and on his account all the tribes of the earth will wail. So it is to be. Amen. "I am the Alpha and the Omega," says the Lord God, who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty. Therefore, since it is by God's mercy that we are engaged in this ministry, we do not lose heart. We have renounced the shameful things that one hides; we refuse to practice cunning or to falsify God's word; but by the open statement of the truth we commend ourselves to the conscience of everyone in the sight of God."

But Thomas (who was called the Twin), one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands, and put my finger in the mark of the nails and my hand in his side, I will not believe."

A week later his disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were shut, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it in my side. Do not doubt but believe." Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe."

Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book. But these are written so that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that through believing you may have life in his name

In-person guidelines and COVID-19

Following the CDC's lifting of emergency order mandating face masks in indoor public spaces in counties with low COVID transmission rates, masks will no longer be required at St.

Andrew's. Our new mask policy is:

- Adults not fully vaccinated should continue to wear a mask when indoors to help prevent spreading COVID.
- We remain a mask-friendly organization—we fully support those who choose to wear a mask.
- While in the building, please remain mindful of both our members who are immunocompromised, and the children in our community who are not yet eligible to be vaccinated, by maintaining your distance and wearing a mask when you feel it is appropriate.
- We ask all members and guests to continue to practice one of our core Christian values articulated by Christ in the Golden Rule: "In everything do to others as you would have them do to you."

If you have any questions, please speak to one of the clergy or the wardens. Thank you for your continued support in keeping our church community safe and healthy.

About the Readings

Acts 5:27-32 This summary section, one of three thus far in Acts (also 2:42-47 and 4:32-35), has as its theme the powerful signs and wonders of the apostles. They meet in the temple and attract a growing crowd. Many of these believers are from outside the Jerusalem area and take their new faith with them when they return to their homes, thus seeding the Christian message throughout the Mediterranean basin. Peter's healing of the sick demonstrates the fulfillment of the apostolic prayer in Acts 4:30. When they had brought them, they had them stand before the council. The high priest questioned them, saying, "We gave you strict orders not to teach in this name, yet here you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching and you are determined to bring this man's blood on us."

Psalms 118:22-29 Psalm 118 is the final psalm of the "Egyptian Hallel" (Psalms 113-118), a cycle of psalms used during the Passover festival. It suggests a liturgy of thanksgiving said at the temple gates. Verse 22 is probably a proverbial expression that summarized the deliverance of the king (vv. 5-21). In the New Testament, it was applied to Jesus' death and resurrection. Jesus' death is humanity's "no" to him; Jesus' resurrection is God's "yes."

Revelation 1:4-8 Today's reading forms the introduction to Revelation, weaving together Old Testament images and themes shaped by the worship experience of the Church. Verses 9-20 introduce the first section of the book (1:9-3:22), the seven letters to the churches. The number seven stands for wholeness, completeness and unity. The seven churches are symbolized by seven golden lampstands, among which Jesus is present at the center. Details of the description of "one like the son of man" reflect those of the angel in Daniel 10:5-6, the high priest in Exodus 28:4, the Ancient of Days in Daniel 7:9, and the cherubim and the glory of God in Ezekiel 1:5-6, 24 and 43:2. The two-edged sword is the word of God. The Risen One assigns his task—to write the vision of the true meaning of past, present and future.

John 20:19-31 The first appearance of the risen Lord to the disciples (the first of the two appearances in today's reading) is described somewhat differently in each gospel. John stresses Jesus' fulfillment of the promises made in the great Farewell Discourse. He has returned, bringing peace and joy. He shows his wounds to establish that the crucified Jesus and the risen Christ are one and the same. Jesus then gives the disciples a commission and breathes the Holy Spirit upon them. This is the “new creation” of humanity and the transmission of Jesus’ divine life to the Church. On the Church then, Jesus bestows the power to mediate divine forgiveness. Thomas personifies the element of doubt recorded in the other gospel accounts. He will not accept the word of others but wishes to probe the miraculous. Yet, when Jesus comes near, Thomas forgets his doubts and penetrates the meaning behind the marvel, making the full affirmation of Christian faith by giving Jesus the ultimate title of God
