The Holy Communion

Presentation of Bread and Wine

Offertory Anthem "Infant holy, infant lowly"

Polish Carol arranged
by David Willcocks (1919-2015)

*Infant holy,
Infant lowly,
For His bed a cattle stall;
Oxen lowing,
Little knowing
Christ the Babe is Lord of all.*

*Swift are winging
Angels singing,
Noels ringing,
Tidings bringing,
Christ the Babe is Lord of all.*

*Flocks were sleeping,
Shepherds keeping
Vigil till the morning new;
Saw the glory,
Heard the story,
Tidings of a Gospel true.*

*Thus rejoicing,
Free from sorrow,
Praises voicing,
Greet the morrow,
Christ the Babe was born for you!*

Doxology Hymn 380 v. 3 "Praise God from whom all blessings flow" Old 100th

Eucharistic Prayer B BCP p. 367

S129 Sanctus (front section of hymnal) Robert Powell (b. 1932)

Breaking of the Bread

Celebrant Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

People Therefore let us keep the feast.

S 156 Fraction Anthem (front section of hymnal) Christ our Passover Gerald Near

All are welcome to receive communion. Ushers will direct the congregation.

Offertory Anthem People, Look East Besançon Carol

*People, look east. The time is near
Of the crowning of the year.
Make your house fair as you are able,
Trim the hearth and set the table.
People, look east and sing today:
Love, the guest, is on the way.*

*Stars, keep the watch. When night is dim
One more light the bowl shall brim,
Shining beyond the frosty weather,
Bright as sun and moon together.
People, look east and sing today:
Love, the star, is on the way.*

*Furrows, be glad. Though earth is bare,
One more seed is planted there:
Give up your strength the seed to nourish,
That in course the flower may flourish.
People, look east and sing today:
Love, the rose, is on the way.*

*Angels, announce with shouts of mirth
Christ who brings new life to earth.
Set every peak and valley humming
With the word, the Lord is coming.
People, look east and sing today:
Love, the Lord, is on the way.*

*Birds, though you long have ceased to build,
Guard the nest that must be filled.
Even the hour when wings are frozen
God for fledging time has chosen.
People, look east and sing today:
Love, the bird, is on the way.*

Christmas & Epiphany Services

Christmas Eve Services Saturday, December 24

Children's Service at 3pm

This half-hour service is aimed at young children. We sing carols, hear the Christmas story, and have a children's homily (no Holy Communion). The service is followed by birthday cake.

Family Eucharist at 5pm

This hour-long Holy Communion service is the most well attended Christmas Eve service at St. Andrew's. The service ends with the church darkened and everyone holding a candle as we sing "Silent Night."

Choral Service & Holy Eucharist at 10pm

This is a traditional service with communion, carols, a sermon, and choral anthems. A 20-minute musical prelude precedes the hour-long service with the full choir and a string quartet.

Christmas Day Service Sunday, December 25 at 10am

This is a relaxed one-hour service with communion, Christmas carols, and a short homily.

Epiphany Fireside Service Sunday, January 8, 2023 at 5pm

This Holy Communion service, in the parish hall with a roaring fire, is attended by an intergenerational congregation. We hear a short Epiphany homily and sing Epiphany hymns followed by a potluck.

Icon of the Week

Folk Nativity

Maria (Mary) is sitting or kneeling to the right of the child. Seen by the spectator, she is on the left. Behind or next to her is the ox, which does not actually appear in Luke's Gospel but is considered a kosher animal and symbolizes the people of Israel and Christianity. From the left, i.e. from Mary's side, the shepherds approach with their sheep. They represent the believers who bring sacrificial animals, food and clothing.

Giuseppe (Joseph) is on the left side of the baby Jesus, that is, on the right if seen by the viewer. Next to Joseph is the donkey, also not mentioned in Luke's Gospel. The donkey is interpreted as an impure animal and symbolizes non-religious or even pagan people. The three wise men also symbolize the pagan world. Gaspar, Melchior, and Balthazar are the "wise men of the East" who donate gold, incense, and myrrh. With youth, middle age, and old age, they are on the one hand a symbol for the different stages of people's lives. On the other hand, their origins from Africa, Asia and Europe are associated with the three continents known at the time. Since Melchior represents the European continent and therefore the West, the designation "Three ... from the East" is not entirely correct.

It is also important that the stable of the crib is always open and freely visible to the viewer. This is a symbol that everyone, regardless of nationality and faith, is welcome and welcomed by Jesus. If there are several angels around the Christmas crib, they form the heavenly choir. Unlike the announcing angels, they are located on the right, left or both sides, next to the stable. The star symbolizes the complete process of Jesus' birth and only appears from this moment on in the dark sky of the Holy Night. The three saddle animals (not in this icon) belonged to the three wise men represented the continents known at the time: the elephant, is usually placed next to King Gaspar, representing the African continent; King Balthazar rides on a camel as a representative of Asia, and Melchior rides a horse as a representative of Europe.

You can do this by signing onto Realm and sharing your practice by making a comment on the post in the Realm news feed about the Advent Bible Challenge. Anton's Coats for Kid's and Families

We encourage those who want to donate Coats this year to take them directly to Anton's Cleaner's. There is an Anton's at 277 Linden Street (use the drive-in for Dunkin' Donuts) which will accept coats. Anton's will facilitate the distribution via various organizations serving the needy. The collection continues until January 8, 2023.

Children's Programs

All children's programs including Kids' Place, church school, Rite-13, Confirmation, and youth group, will be on break December 19 through January 7. Programs will start back Sunday, January 8. See you in the New Year!

First Aid Kits and Defibrillators

We have first aid kits in all the church school classrooms and both kitchens. We also have AED's (Automated External Defibrillator) on every floor: these are marked with big signs on the wall near the cabinet containing the AED. In that cabinet there is also Narcan and other emergency first aid items.

We also have a large first aid kit in the acolytes changing room. If you are in need of emergency medicine, you should of course call 911, but feel free to use the first aid kits for minor cuts and scrapes as needed.

Parking on Denton Road

In this holiday season, please be careful that you do not obstruct the driveways of our neighbors. We wish to maintain good relations with our neighbors and to extend to them the courtesy we would expect from others parking in our own roads. Thanks for your help with this!

The Wellesley Freedom Team

The Wellesley police department has set up a task force to address incidents that may arise in our town involving racism or other discriminatory conduct. That group, called The Wellesley Freedom Team, is seeking to raise public awareness of its existence as a resource. The Wellesley Freedom Team would like you to know that we are available to victims of racism or bias, or to those who witness such disturbing behavior. Our volunteers provide a safe, confidential space for people to air concerns, be heard, and be connected to available resources that can address victim/witness concerns. The Wellesley Freedom Team, established in March 2021, is part of a network of seven teams in the Greater Boston area. For more visit wellesleyfreedomteam.org/ or contact us at wellesleyfreedomteam@gmail.com

Gratitude

Alternative Gift Fair

A great big thank you to everyone who has made the Alternative Gift of the AGF a part of their Christmas shopping. Clearly, you know that a gift to family and friends of baby chicks, meals and support for people less fortunate, books, shawls and hats, or school supplies, is a reminder of how fortunate we and the recipient are. Many of you went for the entire bundle, buying everything on the list. This year's fair has been a splendid success. And note, you can still buy your last minute gifts from AGF!

The Giving Tree

The gifts under and on the Giving Tree have been piling up, another reflection of our desire to make Christmas a happy time for families in our outreach circle. If you see a gift tag on the tree, please take it so we fulfill all of the wishes sent our way. More hats and mittens on the tree will be most welcome!
