Collect of the Day

Celebrant Together we pray.

People O God, you declare your almighty power chiefly in showing mercy and pity: Grant us the fullness of your grace, that we, running to obtain your promises, may become partakers of your heavenly treasure; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Lesson: Jeremiah 32:1-3a, 6-15

The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the tenth year of King Zedekiah of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar. At that time the army of the king of Babylon was besieging Jerusalem, and the prophet Jeremiah was confined in the court of the guard that was in the palace of the king of Judah, where King Zedekiah of Judah had confined him.

Jeremiah said, The word of the LORD came to me: Hanamel son of your uncle Shallum is going to come to you and say, "Buy my field that is at Anathoth, for the right of redemption by purchase is yours." Then my cousin Hanamel came to me in the court of the guard, in accordance with the word of the LORD, and said to me, "Buy my field that is at Anathoth in the land of Benjamin, for the right of possession and redemption is yours; buy it for yourself." Then I knew that this was the word of the LORD.

And I bought the field at Anathoth from my cousin Hanamel, and weighed out the money to him, seventeen shekels of silver. I signed the deed, sealed it, got witnesses, and weighed the money on scales. Then I took the sealed deed of purchase, containing the terms and conditions, and the open copy; and I gave the deed of purchase to Baruch son of Neriah son of Mahseiah, in the presence of my cousin Hanamel, in the presence of the witnesses who signed the deed of purchase, and in the presence of all the Judeans who were sitting in the court of the guard. In their presence I charged Baruch, saying, Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Take these deeds, both this sealed deed of purchase and this open deed, and put them in an earthenware jar, in order that they may last for a long time. For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Houses and fields and vineyards shall again be bought in this land.

Psalm 91:1-6, 14-16

David Hurd

The congregation is encouraged to sing the psalm.

1 He who dwells in the shelter of the Möst High, *
abides under the shadow of the Almighty.

- 2 He shall say to the LORD,
 my God in<sup>1</sup> whom I<sup>1</sup> put my<sup>1</sup> trust.”
- 3 He shall deliver you from the<sup>1</sup> snare of the<sup>1</sup> hunter * and<sup>1</sup> from the<sup>1</sup> deadly<sup>1</sup> pestilence.
- 4 He shall cover you with his pinions, and you shall find refuge<sup>1</sup> under his<sup>1</sup> wings; *
 his faithfulness shall<sup>1</sup> be a<sup>1</sup> shield and<sup>1</sup> buckler.
- 5 You shall not be afraid of any<sup>1</sup> terror by<sup>1</sup> night, *
- 6 Of the plague that<sup>1</sup> stalks in<sup>1</sup> the<sup>1</sup> darkness, *
 nor of the sickness that<sup>1</sup> läys<sup>1</sup> waste at<sup>1</sup> mid-day.
- 14 Because he is bound to me in love,
 therefore will<sup>1</sup> I de<sup>1</sup> liver him; *
 I will protect him, be<sup>1</sup> cause he<sup>1</sup> knows my<sup>1</sup> Name.
- 15 He shall call upon me, and<sup>1</sup> I will<sup>1</sup> answer him; *
 I am with him in trouble;
- 16 With long<sup>1</sup> life will I<sup>1</sup> satisfy him, *

Second Lesson: 1 Timothy 6:6-19

There is great gain in godliness combined with contentment; for we brought nothing into the world, so that we can take nothing out of it; but if we have food and clothing, we will be content with these. But those who want to be rich fall into temptation and are trapped by many senseless and harmful desires that plunge people into ruin and destruction. For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil, and in their eagerness to be rich some have wandered away from the faith and pierced themselves with many pains.

But as for you, man of God, shun all this; pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, endurance, gentleness. Fight the good fight of the faith; take hold of the eternal life, to which you were called and for which you made the good confession in the presence of many witnesses. In the presence of God, who gives life to all things, and of Christ Jesus, who in his testimony before Pontius Pilate made the good confession, I charge you to keep the commandment without spot or blame until the manifestation of our Lord Jesus Christ, which he will bring about at the right time—he who is the blessed and only Sovereign, the King of kings and Lord of lords. It is he alone who has immortality and dwells in unapproachable light, whom no one has ever seen or can see; to him be honor and eternal dominion. Amen.

As for those who in the present age are rich, command them not to be haughty, or to set their hopes on the uncertainty of riches, but rather on God who richly provides us with everything for our enjoy-

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "There was a rich man who was dressed in purple and fine linen and who feasted sumptuously every day. And at his gate lay a poor man named Lazarus, covered with sores, who longed to satisfy his hunger with what fell from the rich man's table; even the dogs would come and lick his sores. The poor man died and was carried away by the angels to be with Abraham. The rich man also died and was buried. In Hades, where he was being tormented, he looked up and saw Abraham far away with Lazarus by his side. He called out, 'Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue; for I am in agony in these flames.' But Abraham said, 'Child, remember that during your lifetime you received your good things, and Lazarus in like manner evil things; but now he is comforted here, and you are in agony. Besides all this, between you and us a great chasm has been fixed, so that those who might want to pass from here to you cannot do so, and no one can cross from there to us.' He said, 'Then, father, I beg you to send him to my father's house—for I have five brothers—that he may warn them, so that they will not also come into this place of torment.' Abraham replied, 'They have Moses and the prophets; they should listen to them.' He said, 'No, father Abraham; but if someone goes to them from the dead, they will repent.' He said to him, 'If they do not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be convinced even if someone rises from the dead.'"

The Holy Communion

Presentation of the Bread and the Wine

Offertory Anthem Love divine, all loves excelling Howard Goodall (b. 1958)
text by Charles Wesley (1707-1788)

*Love divine, all loves excelling,
joy of heaven, to earth come down,
fix in us thy humble dwelling,
all thy faithful mercies crown.
Jesus, thou art all compassion,
pure, unbounded love thou art;
visit us with thy salvation;
enter every trembling heart.*

*Breathe, oh, breathe thy loving Spirit
into every troubled breast;
let us all in thee inherit;
let us find the promised rest.
Take away the love of sinning;
Alpha and Omega be;
end of faith, as its beginning,
set our hearts at liberty.*

*Come, Almighty, to deliver,
let us all thy life receive;
suddenly return, and never,
nevermore thy temples leave.
Thee we would be always blessing,
serve thee as thy hosts above,
pray and praise thee without ceasing,
glory in thy perfect love.*

*Finish, then, thy new creation;
pure and spotless let us be;
let us see thy great salvation
perfectly restored in thee:
changed from glory into glory,
till in heaven we take our place,
till we cast our crowns before thee,
lost in wonder, love and praise.*

About the Readings

From Preparing for Sunday http://standrewswellesley.org/worship\_reading.html

Jeremiah 32:1-3a, 6-15 Jeremiah often conveyed his prophetic message in enacted parables. These actions served as living examples of the truths that he announced through his words. In today's reading, with the conquering Babylonians besieging Jerusalem and its destruction only a matter of time, Jeremiah decides to invest in real estate. He purchases a family plot of land to which he has the first option because he trusts in God's promise that despite the current disruption, there will eventually be a future restoration of the most common elements of economic life, "houses, fields and vineyards." With God's help, the nation will again function and regain its health. Jeremiah thus invests in God's promised future even though that future, now seems completely closed off.

Psalms 91:1-6, 14-16 This psalm is a wisdom psalm; that is, a psalm of instruction (torah). It is a meditation upon God as the protector of the faithful, from both human and demonic foes. Against this fear is set the experience of abiding in God, dwelling in God's presence. God is a protective shelter (v. 1), a refreshing shadow (or shade, as from the scorching desert sun), a refuge and fortress from all destructive forces (v. 2). Those who so abide are securely protected from disaster (vv. 14-16).

1 Timothy 6:6-19 Today's reading consists of a solemn exhortation in liturgical language. The encouragement to "fight the good fight" (v. 12) is a metaphor not from warfare, but from athletics. The "good confession" (v. 12) probably refers to the confession of faith made at baptism (from which the baptismal creed developed). Paul uses the word "manifestation" or "appearing" (Greek, epiphany) both for Jesus' incarnation and for his second coming. This term was used in the cult of emperor-worship; Paul seems to have deliberately appropriated it to contrast Christ to the emperor. The terms that describe God (vv. 15-16) emphasize God's sovereignty and complete holiness.

Luke 16:19-31 The story of the rich man and Lazarus is a double-edged parable. The first part (vv. 19-26) was popular in rabbinic literature, usually told as a story about a rich tax collector and a poor student of the law. At this time, the idea of Sheol (Greek, Hades), the place of all the departed who led there a shadowy quasi-existence, had developed into two places: one of torment (usually called Gehenna) and one of bliss, Paradise. The chasm reveals the irreversibility of the situation. This first part is, then, a parable of reversal, indicating the changes to take place in the kingdom as declared by Mary in 1:52-53. Lazarus, whose name means “God helps,” illustrates God’s special concern for the poor. The second part of the parable adds a second point: Moses (the law) and the prophets give a sufficient call to repentance. This part of the story is a parable of warning; its theme is “too late!” Those whose hearts are closed to compassion will have minds closed to revelation.

Coventry Suppers

Coventry Suppers have been a fun and meaningful tradition for years at St. Andrew's, providing an opportunity for both new and current members to gather for simple meals at each other's homes. These casual dinners, in which everyone contributes a dish, are especially nice for newcomers, as they allow members of the parish to get to know one another in a small intimate setting.

Please sign up to participate on the sign-up sheets in the narthex, or on the St. Andrew's website (under the HAPPENINGS tab, click FELLOWSHIP). Groups of 8-10 people will be formed after October 2nd, and a list of the members in your group will be distributed in early October. A "first convener" will also be designated as the first dinner host(s), where the group can then discuss how often to gather during the year. Thank you so much! — Jenny Sawyer
