Men's Bible Study

WE'VE GOT A GREAT MEN'S Bible study going here at St. Andrew's. It meets once a month, on the first Saturday, at 8:00 am, downstairs, in Room 2 at the church.

Dick Carls

The format's informal. We say "Hi" to each other; have coffee and donuts, exchange a little of the day's doings and then settle into our study and discussions.

Moving though the Bible one book at a time, we read, reflect and discuss, going at a comfortable pace so that each has his say. New ideas are welcome. Sometimes we don't get through a lot of chapters or verses in a meeting. But that doesn't matter. We stay on track regardless, and we come away from these sessions spiritually fulfilled, and looking forward to the next one.

Do you think the meeting time seems tough to make? Well, with our busy lives, we always have commitments calling, but come Saturday, we're usually fresh and ready for a change of pace, and once month seems to work well. Plus, there's coffee and donuts!

Want to prepare? Fine, if you want, but it's not necessary. The convener reads ahead and does some preparing, but the main point of these sessions is what we're reading together, what we think about it, and then talking it over with each other.

Our next meeting is September 12. That's the second Saturday of the month and a departure from our usual schedule. But we voted and decided it was good to give some room to the Labor Day weekend. We'll be starting back up with John 16:1, picking up from where we left off in June.

Hope to see you on the 12th.
