

CELEBRATING 125 YEARS

ST. ANDREW'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH

History from our Archives

Please enjoy these timeless items, culled from the archives, as we journey through our 125th anniversary year. This month features snippets of history from 1971 to 1980.

— Sandra Rigney • sandrig@verizon.net

Next Sunday the Holy Communion will be celebrated according to the new proposed liturgy. We will celebrate it every other month on the first Sunday. Comments and suggestions are welcome. 1967

Some structural changes are obvious in the new liturgy, the confession is optional rather than required, and the Prayer for the Whole State of Christ's Church has been transformed into a litany of intercession. The language is different from the traditional usage of the Prayer Book. This proposed revision will be tried throughout the Church for at least the next three years. At the end of this period the General Convention will decide whether or not to initiate change, taking another three years before final revision. 1967

Looking for a replacement of the choir room rugs, used for sound deadening, which were inadvertently sold at the Rummage Sale. Two small rugs (6 x 12) or one large one (15 x 25) would be greatly appreciated. 1967

"Flower Girls" are needed in the Harvey Room, every Sunday after the 11:10am service to package bouquets from the altars. This requires a few minutes time, while waiting for your church school child—a "flower break" instead of a "coffee"! No arranging or delivery necessary. 1967

NEEDED: For tiny Miss Yuko Hayashi—a piano stool that can be adjusted up or down (mostly up).

The organ console is being shipped to the factory in Canada for recommended readjustments by Casavant Frères at their expense. During the interim, we are grateful to Mr. Daniel Pinkham for the loan of his personal organ.

Missing! The F sharp pipe from the borrowed organ has disappeared. It is about seven inches long, silver color and likely was pulled out by a child. Can anyone help locate it?

St. Andrew's Response to the Church World Service Clothing appeal in October was most generous. 284 pounds of good used clothes and six blankets were donated—the largest amount ever received. Many thanks to all who contributed! 1969

This is the time of year when many people say aloud or in our hearts: "I would give more to my church if only I could." If you're one of these, have you considered this question, "How much of my time am I giving to help at St. Andrew's? Could I give more of that, even at the sacrifice of some leisure or other activity?" 1967

For the past three years intense effort has been made to have more of our work done by volunteers instead of paying somebody to do it. The result has been remarkably good. More of our people have done secretarial work and typing, preparing mailings, counting and recording pledges, bookkeeping, even building repairs and maintenance. These valuable contributions have freed thousands of dollars for outside giving and for debt reduction. St. Andrew's needs your hands as well as your heart.

Boston Herald article about 1968 Mistletoe Mart: "... antiques, collector's treasures, fine crewel work, signed enamels and holiday decorations. There will be a Mink Boutique!"

In 1969, as the vestry was considering purchasing Miss Denton's estate adjoining the church property, Mr. Clark urged the parish "to reflect carefully and prayerfully on the question of our priority in using large sums for expansion of property in relationship to the urgent needs of people suffering from poverty and racial injustice."

PUNCH N' JUDY: People are needed to serve refreshments after the summer 9:30am services. Easy work—no pay—pleasant surroundings. 1969

We have a special guest today. At the 10am service will be Mrs. Lillian E. (McWilliams) Wagstaff, who was baptized at the dedication on November 30, 1894. She writes, "Bishop William Lawrence, Sr. attended the dedication held in the evening and it was snowing hard, so I hope we don't have a repeat of this weather next Sunday."

Next Sunday marks the 75th year of this building!

The Peace: After the verbal exchange, we invite you to greet those around you in the pews with a smile, a friendly word, a handshake, or an embrace.

Holy, Holy, Holy... Note that there is no Amen at the conclusion of the Sanctus. Congregation should kneel immediately following the singing.

The Blessing and Dismissal: The Priest may give the traditional blessing prior to the final dismissal. A Deacon, if present, may make the dismissal, to which the congregation responds, "Thanks be to God." Questions, comments, and criticisms of this and all services are always welcome. 1970

Collect of the Day

Celebrant Together we pray.

People Almighty God, you have built your Church upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief cornerstone: Grant us so to be joined together in unity of spirit by their teaching, that we may be made a holy temple acceptable to you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Lesson: 2 Kings 2:1-2, 6-14

When the LORD was about to take Elijah up to heaven by a whirlwind, Elijah and Elisha were on their way from Gilgal. Elijah said to Elisha, "Stay here; for the LORD has sent me as far as Bethel." But Elisha said, "As the LORD lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you." So they went down to Bethel.

Then Elijah said to him, "Stay here; for the LORD has sent me to the Jordan." But he said, "As the LORD lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you." So the two of them went on. Fifty men of the company of prophets also went, and stood at some distance from them, as they both were standing by the Jordan. Then Elijah took his mantle and rolled it up, and struck the water; the water was parted to the one side and to the other, until the two of them crossed on dry ground.

When they had crossed, Elijah said to Elisha, "Tell me what I may do for you, before I am taken from you." Elisha said,

“Please let me inherit a double share of your spirit.” He responded, “You have asked a hard thing; yet, if you see me as I am being taken from you, it will be granted you; if not, it will not.” As they continued walking and talking, a chariot of fire and horses of fire separated the two of them, and Elijah ascended in a whirlwind into heaven. Elisha kept watching and crying out, “Father, father! The chariots of Israel and its horsemen!” But when he could no longer see him, he grasped his own clothes and tore them in two pieces.

He picked up the mantle of Elijah that had fallen from him, and went back and stood on the bank of the Jordan. He took the mantle of Elijah that had fallen from him, and struck the water, saying, “Where is the LORD, the God of Elijah?” When he had struck the water, the water was parted to the one side and to the other, and Elisha went over.

Psalm 77:1-2, 11-20

- 1 I will cry aloud to God; *
I will cry aloud, and he will hear me.
- 2 In the day of my trouble I sought the Lord; *
my hands were stretched out by night and did not tire;
I refused to be comforted.
- 11 I will remember the works of the LORD, *
and call to mind your wonders of old time.
- 12 I will meditate on all your acts *
and ponder your mighty deeds.
- 13 Your way, O God, is holy; *
who is so great a god as our God?
- 14 You are the God who works wonders *
and have declared your power among the peoples.
- 15 By your strength you have redeemed your people, *
the children of Jacob and Joseph.
- 16 The waters saw you, O God; the waters saw you and trembled; *
the very depths were shaken.
- 17 The clouds poured out water; the skies thundered; *
your arrows flashed to and fro;

- 18 The sound of your thunder was in the whirlwind;
 your lightnings lit up the world; *
 the earth trembled and shook.
- 19 Your way was in the sea, and your paths in the great waters, *
 yet your footsteps were not seen.
- 20 You led your people like a flock *
 by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

Second Lesson: Galatians 5:1,13-25

For freedom Christ has set us free. Stand firm, therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery. For you were called to freedom, brothers and sisters; only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for self-indulgence, but through love become slaves to one another. For the whole law is summed up in a single commandment, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." If, however, you bite and devour one another, take care that you are not consumed by one another. Live by the Spirit, I say, and do not gratify the desires of the flesh. For what the flesh desires is opposed to the Spirit, and what the Spirit desires is opposed to the flesh; for these are opposed to each other, to prevent you from doing what you want. But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not subject to the law. Now the works of the flesh are obvious: fornication, impurity, licentiousness, idolatry, sorcery, enmities, strife, jealousy, anger, quarrels, dissensions, factions, envy, drunkenness, carousing, and things like these. I am warning you, as I warned you before: those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.

By contrast, the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. There is no law against such things. And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. If we live by the Spirit, let us also be guided by the Spirit.

Gospel: Luke 9:51-62

Clergy The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When the days drew near for Jesus to be taken up, he set his face to go to Jerusalem. And he sent messengers ahead of him. On their way they entered a village of the Samaritans to make ready for him; but they did not receive him, because his face was set toward Jerusalem. When his disciples James and John saw it, they said, "Lord, do you want us to command fire to come down from heaven and consume them?" But he turned and rebuked them. Then they went on to another village. As they were going along the road, someone said to him, "I will follow you wherever you go." And Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head." To another he said, "Follow me." But he said, "Lord, first let me go and bury my father." But Jesus said to him, "Let the dead bury their own dead; but as for you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God." Another said, "I will follow you, Lord; but let me first say farewell to those at my home." Jesus said to him, "No one who puts a hand to the plow and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God."

B-SAFE! July 22 to 26

As the days get longer and the school year comes to a close, you know what major event is right around the corner for St. Andrew's: it's B-SAFE! This important outreach ministry involves feeding and supporting our sister parish, St. Stephen's, for one week as they host a summer academic and enrichment camp for inner-city youth. Our dates are July 22 to 26: we'll make healthy meals in our kitchen each day, then drive to Boston to serve 170 hungry kids and counselors. We also will host a fun field day at Carson Beach. We need lots of hands to shop, cook, serve, and clean up and the many volunteers from the past 20 years can attest to the fun camaraderie we have as we work together. Even if your family will be out of town that week, you can volunteer to shop in advance or bake and freeze a simple pasta casserole. Please go to the SERVE page of our website to join the team! Contact one of us with any questions: Cam McCormick • cammccormick@earthlink.net and Karen Pekowitz • kpekowitz920@gmail.com

Day of Service, October 19

Be sure to save the date for Saturday, October 19, when our annual Day of Service has an exciting new component! We will be creating 12,500 dried meals to distribute to St. Stephen's and to food pantries in our area. That's 100 meals for each of the 125 years that St. Andrew's has been in Wellesley. The best part is, we will do this in just one hour! We need 80+ volunteers at 9:30am that day, and we welcome volunteers from age 5 up. So, plan for your whole family to join this simple and meaningful service opportunity and watch for announcements with a sign up link in early fall. Organized by: Al & Zebby Dubé, Greg Hunter, Nancy Jones, Cam McCormick, and Doug & Lois Mizzi.

Letter from the Executive Office of the United Nations Secretary-General 1968,

The Rector has received the following letter from C.V. Narasimhan, Chef de Cabinet

On behalf of the Secretary-General I acknowledge your letter to him dated 21 December, with which you enclosed a photograph of the stained-glass window which has been recently installed in your parish in honor of Dag Hammarskjold.

The Secretary-General has asked me to convey to you and to members of your congregation his appreciation for the dedication of the window, a living symbol of your laudable support of the principles and ideals of the United Nations.

The Secretary-General is most grateful to you for your kind words concerning his efforts to bring about a peaceful settlement to the Viet-Nam conflict.
