

CELEBRATING 125 YEARS

ST. ANDREW'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH

History from our Archives

Our own church cat, Ben, will be 17 years old on February 13. Although he has been rather out of sight at church services of late, he has ministered to so many of us here at St. Andrew's in his own particular way, that I have suggested this Evensong be sung in his honor. 2011

We did it! Thanks to you and the generosity of fellow parishioners, we have reached our Fire and Heat campaign goal of $1.3 million. So let's celebrate! The vestry and clergy of St. Andrew's are hosting the entire adult parish to a Celebration Party. This special event is being funded personally by the vestry and the clergy to show our heartfelt thanks for all your support of this very important campaign. The party will be April 1, from 7 to 9pm in the parish hall. Hors d'oeuvres and dessert will be served. 2011

During church school, all young people have received their Heifer Coin boxes and learned about the various ways that Heifer International helps to transform impoverished communities around the world. Please ask your children (or others in the parish) about Heifer and which animal their class is collecting money to sponsor when you see them at coffee hour or around town. Also, everyone is welcome to sign up to participate in the parish-wide trip to the Heifer Demonstration farm on April 10. If we beat last year's total, Rev. Chris Wendell has agreed to kiss a cow! 2011

There will be two eight-week sessions focusing on age-appropriate musical exploration, social interaction, and of course, fun! St. Andrew's Song Birds (ages four and five in pre-K and kindergarten) will have an opportunity to share what they have learned with the congregation at the end of the eight weeks period during the 10am service. 2011

Celebrating the 400th birthday of the King James Bible. At the olive oil table at coffee hour today and next week there will be CDs of selections from the King James Bible, recordings made by Richard Bradley in the 1980s for use by students at the Rivers School. The authorized (King James) version of the Bible was a translation four years in preparation, initiated by King James I, and finally made available for use in 1611. Its majestic phrases still ring in our ears, and its influence upon great writers and politicians (Abraham Lincoln, Winston Churchill) was profound.

Included are the stories of creation, of David and Goliath, passages from the Psalms, the prophets, the Gospels (Jesus' birth), and a gorgeous concluding passage from the Revelation to John. A bonus feature is an introductory set of guidelines for public reading. The cost of production has been underwritten by a generous parishioner, and all proceeds from the sale of the CD will benefit St. Andrew's. Suggested donation: $20. 2011

At Vacation Bible school, we had 51 kids, 45 volunteers and a week full of singing, dancing, playing, acting, crafting and inventing, marching and hiding, and reading and praying. It was an awesome week. Thank you to everyone who supported this effort to produce our third year of Vacation Bible. We are especially grateful to our brave and hearty crew of volunteers. "Up, up, and away we go, into the great beyond. Wherever we go and whatever we do, we're trusting God all along." (from VBS 2012 Songbook) 2012

Chips For Charity. Please send in your RSVP for the St. Andrew's fall fundraiser Friday, November 16! It's going to be a celebration of community and charity. There will be fabulous food and beverages, fun casino-style games, special entertainment, dancing, spontaneous prizes, and "Raise the Paddle for the Girls of El Hogar". Everyone can enter to win amazing prizes: a reserved parking spot at St. Andrews; a cruise and lunch for six on Bill Eddy's gorgeous handcrafted boat; or a gourmet Mexican feast for eight at Luisa Hunnewell's lovely home! 2012

Our friends in Hagley Gap, Jamaica (a destination of two youth mission trips) need our help. Hurricane Sandy slammed into their town, devastating their coffee crop, destroying homes and causing severe damage to houses, roads, and the water supply. Please support them in this desperate time. Your contributions will make a difference. 2012

San Pedro Sula, Honduras, recently received the dubious honor from the United Nations as the most dangerous city in the world, based on its murder rate in excess of 170 per 100,000 in 2011. Gangs have an almost unchallenged reign of extortion, murder, and drug trafficking. Our Little Roses, the home for girls which we have supported for many years, is suffering as donations and visitors are down, and the girls' needs are great. St. Andrew's was able to send an extra $1,000 contribution to help out, because parishioners contributed toward the youth mission trip in the summer—donations that otherwise would have come from the outreach budget. Thanks to our generous parish, and please keep OLR in your prayers. 2012

Benedictus es, Domine S 236 (front section of hymnal)

John Rutter

Glory to you, Lord God of our fathers; you are worthy of praise; glory to you.

Glory to you for the radiance of your holy Name; we will praise you and highly exalt you for ever.

Glory to you in the splendor of your temple; on the throne of your majesty, glory to you.

Glory to you, seated between the Cherubim; we will praise you and highly exalt you for ever.

Glory to you, beholding the depths; in the high vault of heaven, glory to you.

Glory to you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit; we will praise you and highly exalt you for ever.

Collect of the Day

Celebrant Together we pray.

People Almighty God, you have knit together your elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of your Son Christ our Lord: Give us grace so to follow your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those ineffable joys that you have prepared for those who truly love you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

First Lesson: Daniel 7:1-3,15-18

In the first year of King Belshazzar of Babylon, Daniel had a dream and visions of his head as he lay in bed. Then he wrote down the dream: I, Daniel, saw in my vision by night the four winds of heaven stirring up the great sea, and four great beasts came up out of the sea, different from one another.

As for me, Daniel, my spirit was troubled within me, and the visions of my head terrified me. I approached one of the attendants to ask him the truth concerning all this. So he said that he would disclose to me the interpretation of the matter: "As for these four great beasts, four kings shall arise out of the earth. But the holy ones of the Most High shall receive the kingdom and possess the kingdom for ever—for ever and ever."

Psalm 149

William Crotch

The congregation is encouraged to sing the psalm.

1 Hallelujah!

Sing to the LORD a ¹nĕw ¹song; *

sing his praise in the congre¹gation¹ of the ¹faithful.

2 Let Israel re¹joice in his ¹Maker; *

let the children of Zion be ¹joyful¹ in their ¹King.

3 Let them praise his ¹Name in ¹the ¹dance; *

let them sing ¹praise to him with ¹timbrel and ¹harp.

4 For the LORD takes ¹pleasure in his ¹people *

and a¹dorns the ¹poor with ¹victory.

5 Let the faithful re¹joice in ¹triumph; *

let them be ¹joyful¹ on their ¹beds.

6 Let the praises of ¹God be in their ¹throat *

and a ¹two-edged ¹sword in their ¹hand;

7 To wreak ¹vengeance on the ¹nations *

and ¹punishment¹ on the ¹peoples;

8 To bind their ¹kings in ¹chains *

and their ¹nobles with ¹links of ¹iron;

†9 To inflict on them the ¹judgment de¹creed; *

this is glory for all his faithful ¹people.¹

Halle¹lujah!

Second Lesson: Ephesians 1:11-23

In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; this is the pledge of our inheritance toward redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory.

I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward all the saints, and for this reason I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power. God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

Gospel: Luke 6:20-31

Clergy The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus looked up at his disciples and said: "Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God. Blessed are you who are hungry now, for you will be filled. "Blessed are you who weep now, for you will laugh. Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you, revile you, and defame you on account of the Son of Man. Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, for surely your reward is great in heaven; for that is what their ancestors did to the prophets. But woe to you who are rich, for you have received your consolation. Woe to you who are full now, for you will be hungry. Woe to you who are laughing now, for you will mourn and weep. Woe to you when all speak well of you, for that is what their ancestors did to the false prophets. But I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt. Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again. Do to others as you would have them do to you.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

text John Henry Newman (1801-1890)

They are at rest.

We may not stir the heav'n of their repose

By rude invoking voice, or prayer address

In waywardness to those

Who in the mountain grotts of Eden lie,

And hear the fourfold river as it murmurs

by.

And soothing sounds

Blending with the neighb'ring waters as they glide;

Posted along the haunted garden's bounds,

Angelic forms abide,

Echoing, as words of watch, o'er lawn and

grove

The verses of that hymn which Seraphs

Healing Prayers

The offering of healing prayers is a widespread and ancient tradition within the Episcopal Church, and one that has long been part of the Wednesday morning Eucharist at St. Andrew's. We are eager to extend the reach of these prayers by making them available at our 8am, 10am, and 5pm Sunday services.

The way healing prayers will be offered is as follows. During the time people are receiving communion at the front altar rail, one of the clergy will be on duty at the transept altar to offer healing prayers for anyone who wishes to be prayed with. If you want to have healing prayers, go to the communion rail at the transept altar after you have received communion at the front rail. You are welcome to kneel or stand at the rail.

The clergy person will ask you quietly and discreetly what you wish to pray for. To be clear, requests for healing prayers are not just for health issues. In fact, they are usually for non-physical challenges that an individual may be facing: family, work, relationship difficulties, etc. You can request a prayer for yourself or for someone else. For example, someone might say, "please pray for my husband facing a difficult time at work," or "please pray for my mother facing an operation," or "please pray for my son having a tough time at college." In response, the clergy will quietly and discreetly offer a healing prayer for the situation. One point I do wish to make is that the introduction of healing prayers will not add any time to the length of the service. Once everyone has received communion the service will continue as normal even if there are still people receiving healing prayer at the Transept Chapel.

Again, healing prayer is an ancient Episcopal tradition, and by making it more widely available at St. Andrew's we will be joining Christians down through the ages who have prayed in this way for God's healing presence to be with them. If you have any questions about healing prayer please do not hesitate to speak with me or one of the other clergy.
