Collect of the Day

Celebrant Together we pray.

People O God, whose glory it is always to have mercy: Be gracious to all who have gone astray from your ways, and bring them again with penitent hearts and steadfast faith to embrace and hold fast the unchangeable truth of your Word, Jesus Christ your Son; who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Lesson: Genesis 12:1-4a

The Lord said to Abram, "Go from your country and your kindred and your father's house to the land that I will show you. I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you, and make your name great, so that you will be a blessing. I will bless those who bless you, and the one who curses you I will curse; and in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed.”

So Abram went, as the LORD had told him; and Lot went with him.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 121

Richard Farrant (ca. 1530-1581)

The congregation is encouraged to sing the psalm.

- 1 I lift up my¹eyes to the¹hills; *
from¹where is my¹help to¹come?
- 2 My help¹comes from the¹LORD, *
the¹maker of¹heaven and¹earth.
- 3 He will not let your¹foot be¹moved * and he who watches over you¹will not¹fall a¹sleep.
- 4 Behold, he who keeps¹watch over¹Israel *
shall¹neither¹slumber nor¹sleep;
- 5 The LORD himself¹watches¹over you; *
the LORD is your¹shade at¹your right¹hand.
- 6 So that the sun shall not¹strike you by¹day, *
—¹nor the¹moon by¹night.
- 7 The LORD shall preserve you from¹all¹evil; *
it is¹he who shall¹keep you¹safe.
- 8 The LORD shall watch over your going out and your¹coming¹in, * from this time¹forth for¹ever¹more.

Second Lesson: Romans 4:1-5, 13-17

What then are we to say was gained by Abraham, our ancestor according to the flesh? For if Abraham was justified by works, he has something to boast about, but not before God. For what does the scripture say? “Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned to him as righteousness.” Now to one who works, wages are not reckoned as a gift but as something due. But to one who without works trusts him who justifies the ungodly, such faith is reckoned as righteousness.

For the promise that he would inherit the world did not come to Abraham or to his descendants through the law but through the righteousness of faith. If it is the adherents of the law who are to be the heirs, faith is null and the promise is void. For the law brings wrath; but where there is no law, neither is there violation.

For this reason it depends on faith, in order that the promise may rest on grace and be guaranteed to all his descendants, not only to the adherents of the law but also to those who share the faith of Abraham (for he is the father of all of us, as it is written, "I have made you the father of many nations")—in the presence of the God in whom he believed, who gives life to the dead and calls into existence the things that do not exist.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Gradual Hymn 691 "My faith looks up to thee"

Gospel: John 3:1-17

Clergy The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

There was a Pharisee named Nicodemus, a leader of the Jews. He came to Jesus by night and said to him, "Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher who has come from God; for no one can do these signs that you do apart from the presence of God." Jesus answered him, "Very truly, I tell you, no one can see the kingdom of God without being born from above." Nicodemus said to him, "How can anyone be born after having grown old? Can one enter a second time into the mother's womb and be born?" Jesus answered, "Very truly, I tell you, no one can enter the kingdom of God without being born of water and Spirit. What is born of the flesh is flesh, and what is born of the Spirit is spirit. Do not be astonished that I said to you, 'You must be born from above.' The wind blows where it chooses, and you hear the sound of it, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit." Nicodemus said to him, "How can these things be?" Jesus answered him, "Are you a teacher of Israel, and yet you do not understand these things?

"Very truly, I tell you, we speak of what we know and testify to what we have seen; yet you do not receive our testimony. If I have told you about earthly things and you do not believe, how can you believe if I tell you about heavenly things? No one has ascended into heaven except the one who descended from heaven, the Son of Man. And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life.

"For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life. Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him.”

Clergy The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

About the Readings

Genesis 12:1-4a At this point in the book of Genesis, the focus changes from the story of all humanity to the story of one man, Abram, and through him to the story of a chosen people. The Lord takes the initiative and calls Abram (Abraham) out of his family structure and the social and cultural security of his present location in Haran to go to the unknown land God will show him. His response is the first of the trustful acts that define him as preeminently the Old Testament man of faith. Abraham and his descendants are chosen to inherit a land, become a great nation and mediate blessing to all the world. The story of Abraham shows how God acts in history through the responses of individuals and peoples. Abraham's decision to yield to the will of God no matter the sacrifice demonstrates the nature of the friendship he had with God.

Psalm 121 This psalm is in dialogue form, possibly between a group of worshippers and a priest, perhaps as a blessing at their arrival at or departure from the temple. The Lord, the Creator, will watch over the people day and night.

Romans 4:1-5, 13-17 Paul cites the example of Abraham to show that the concept of justification by faith is not contrary to the Old Testament, but rather supported by it. In first-century Judaism, Abraham was held up as the ideal model of righteousness through works. Paul argues that Abraham's faith, his readiness to believe and act upon God's promise, was "reckoned to him as righteousness." It put him in a right relationship to God apart from works. Not only was Abraham justified apart from works, but God even "justifies the ungodly," as Paul shows by quoting Psalm 32:1-2. Righteousness is open to all who trust in God, Jew or Gentile. The promised inheritance comes through faith to Abraham's true descendants, those who follow his example of faith.

John 3:1-17 Today's reading is taken from the first of John's lengthy expositions of Jesus' teachings. Two characteristic techniques are employed: the use of a question asked on the physical level and answered on the spiritual level, and the use of the questioner's misunderstanding. Nicodemus, a member of the Sanhedrin, comes to Jesus because of his interest in Jesus' works. Jesus seeks to draw him past these outward manifestations to a recognition of their inward significance. The meaning of being "born from above" begins their discussion. Nicodemus's misunderstanding centers around the word translated "from above," which, in Greek, has two meanings. The first is 'anew, again' on the physical level, which is what Nicodemus understands; the second is 'from above' spatially, which is what Jesus seems to intend. Jesus contrasts the realm of the Spirit, which is eternal and heavenly, with the realm of the flesh, which is earthly, weak and mortal (but not necessarily sinful). Both flesh and spirit make up human life, but the Spirit is life itself. The Greek and Hebrew words for wind also mean 'spirit'.

Notices & Announcements

Holy Communion and COVID-19

In light of the coronavirus and advice we have received from the diocese, we have instituted the following changes for the foreseeable future. 1) We will not have wine at communion, just the bread. Theologically, Christ is fully present in both the bread and the wine, so only receiving in “one kind” is still full participation in communion. 2) At the Peace we will not shake hands but greet each other with “prayer hands,” a wave, or an elbow bump. Please contact a member of the clergy with any questions.

Signs of Lent

Similar to Advent, Lent is a season of reflection and preparation, and during both seasons we use purple (or violet) altar hangings. Purple is a penitential color; it is also associated with royalty and subtly points us toward the resurrection. We at St. Andrew’s are fortunate to have two sets of purple hangings: the altar frontal we use for Advent is decorated with gold embroidery and rose banding, while the Lenten one is unadorned, its austerity reflecting the penitential season.

There are more signs of the solemnity of Lent...No flowers on the altar. We don’t sing or say the Gloria and the Lenten hymns are more somber. Our decorative processional cross is replaced with a smaller, simpler one. Our brass candlesticks and brass altar book stand are replaced with iron candlesticks and a wooden stand. The ashes placed on our foreheads on Ash Wednesday represent our own mortality. These Lenten symbols serve to remind us that we are entering a period of prayer and spiritual renewal. — Cynthia Scott, vestryperson for worship • cc.scott@verizon.net

Lenten Book: Meeting God in Mark

Meeting God in Mark by former Archbishop Rowan Williams, is a reflection on the Gospel of Mark. This book brings new depths to Mark’s 16 chapters. It will be an excellent companion in Lent. We will discuss this book at the 9am Christian learning classes in March. You can buy a copy from me for the discounted price of $10. Gratitude

Family Promise Hosting Week at Village Church

A big thank you to those St. Andrew's volunteers who helped out during our Family Promise host week at Village Church March 1 through 8: Ashley Denton, Cam McCormick, Anne Manners, Caren Parker, Debbie Osborn, and Heidi Harper.

Pancake Supper

Thanks to all who worked on the Shrove Tuesday Pancake Supper. The delicious egg stratas made by Paige Fisher, Lakey MacArthur, and Elizabeth Svedlund were a big hit. Mike, Terri, and Zebby were amazing in the kitchen and of course all of our Rite-13 servers/greeters/cleanup crew made the evening a success. A special thank you goes out to organizers Terri Rawson and Jenny Sawyer. If you missed it, add it to your calendar for next year! It truly is a great way to prepare for Lent.

Choral Evensong

Thank you to our great choir and our talented choir director Wardie Mannix for the wonderful choral evensong last Sunday evening. We were blessed by their offering of beautiful anthems and settings for the evensong. It was lovely to see many parishioners and visitors at the service.

Evensong Reception

Thank you to all who contributed to the candle-lit reception highlighted by a beautiful center table of greens, orchids, and savory treats following the Choral Evensong service. A special thanks to Wendy Haering and Margaret Zusky for organizing. And they could not have done it without their devoted team, so thanks to everyone who contributed.

Kids' Place Coffee Hour

Thank you to the membership committee and returning parish families for a well-attended Kids' Place Coffee Hour on Sunday! You helped to welcome several new, young families and even plugged some experienced members into more opportunities for parenting support.
